WIND PRINTS AT NAGS HEAD

Sand dunes braced against the sea. Rippled, but unmoved, by the winds of time. Vignettes of history once etched their shadows upon the surface of these white sands:
sly and silent Indians, daring pirates, sturdy-souled colonists, blue-coated soldiers ready to fight
King George's men—even their shadows now have slipped away. There remain only silent sand dunes by the sea.

EDWARD ANDREW ADAMS

Boy Scouts 1; Literary Society 4; Bird Club 4. Ed is quiet and unassuming; but, when there is a task to be accomplished, he may be counted on to do it well. He is satisfied with nothing less than the best, and we are confident that he will solve his future problems as successfully as he has his past ones.

JAMES ALVIN ALLEN

Treasurer Freshman Class 2; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; President Junior Class 3; Hi-Y Sergeant-at-Arms 3, 4; Monogram Club 3, 4.

RODERICK McIVER ALLEN, JR.

Latin Club 1, 2; N. B. H. S. Cadet 2; Science Club 2, 3, 4; German Club.

To a casual acquaintance Mac is timid and retiring; but to his close associates he is a keen, witty, jolly good fellow. The chemical profession will gain a valuable member because he plans to join the ranks.

KENNETH GEORGE ALTHAUS

Roosevelt High School 1; Art Club 4; Science Club 4.

Kenneth is one who always looks on the sunny side of life, and succeeds without any apparent effort. He has traveled widely, and hopes to be an army officer. His motto is "Small, but mighty."

CLARENCE HENRY ANDREWS, JR.

Scouts 1, 2, 3; Latin Club 1, 2; Cadet 1, 2; Science Club 2; Model Club, Vice President 3; German Club 4. C. H. has been quite outstanding because of his interest in model airplane construction. He is considered an authority by the other boys who pursue this hobby. Good luck, C. H., with your aeronautical career, and happy landings.

JOHN ALLEN AREY, JR.

Science Club 2, 3, 4; Photographer for LATIPAC 3; President Camera Club 3; Literary Society 3, 4; President Photography Club 4.

John has been successful all through his high school career because of his rare gift of applying himself to his work. This same trait has given him a prominent place in outside activities also. With this, and many other enviable qualities, we know that he will make a success.

SAMUEL SCHWARTZ ARONSON

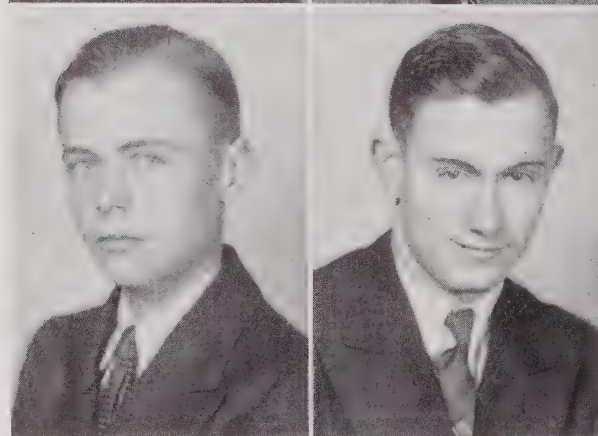

Science Club 1, 2; Latin Club 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 2, 3; Little Theatre 2, 3, 4; Cadet 2, 3; Model Airplane Club 3; German Club 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 3, 4; Hi-Times Staff 4; Motion Picture Committee 4; Sports Writer, Raleigh Times 4.

Sam's ability to put himself over is sure to carry him far in this world. If he is able to out-talk all of his future opponents in the same way that he has out-talked all of us, then he'll certainly win every case.

MILDRED BERNICE ASKEW

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Science Club 2; Girls' Literary Society, President 4; Art Club 4, Secretary 4; Girl Reserves 4; Glee Club 4; Little Theatre 4.

"Millie" is charming, unaffected, and sincere. She wants to be an artist, and if she applies herself to the study of art as she has to her studies and fun at Broughton, she certainly will succeed. The best of the best to our future, "Miss Rembrandt."

REBECCA MATTHEWS ATKINS

Latin Club 1; Girl Scouts 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1; Science Club 2; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 4.
"Precious things come in small bundles." Doesn't that describe Becky perfectly? She's pretty and petite and full of jolly fun and vivacious friendliness.

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3; Girl Scouts 2; Office Assistant 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Hi-Times Staff 4; Little Theatre 4; Girls' Glee Club 4.

Betsy has been a valuable member of the class of '38. Sincerity, loyalty, and dependability are her chief characteristics. Betsy's determination to do well whatever she undertakes makes us confident that she will succeed in any field of endeavor.

EDITH ELIZABETH BALLANCE

Latin Club 1; Girls' Athletic Association 2; Senior Play 4.

Always ready with a helping hand, she derives pleasure from aiding others. Teachers and students alike recognize her sincerity and dependability. She has done good work in dramatics.

LAURA PARKERSON BAREFOOT

Laura possesses a quiet pleasing manner and always has shown a willingness to serve. Thoughtful of others, she has won the deep admiration and regard of her fellow students and teachers.

NANCY EVA BARWICK

Little Theatre 1, 2; Science Club 1, 2; Latin Club 3; French Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Senior Play 4; Wit Superlative 4.

"They gazed and gazed, and still their wonder grew That one small head could carry all" she wanted to talk about! "Squeaky" has chatted her way into all of our hearts, but her conversation is not all humorous chatter—it bespeaks a depth and intellectual power seldom acquired by one so young.

ORVILLE DEWITT BEACHAM

During his stay at Broughton "Buddy" has been a hard worker and a loyal supporter of his class. He is always optimistic and cheerful in the face of the most difficult situations. We wish him luck and assure him that his future will be followed with keen interest by all his classmates.

MARY SUE BERRY

Girls' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Vice President 4; Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3, 4, President Junior Club 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, President 2, 3; Music Contest, Greensboro 2, 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 3; Hi-Times Staff 3, 4, Business Manager 4; Chapel Choir 4; Student Council 4; Raleigh Times Columnist 4; Girls' Basketball Team 4.

For good sportsmanship, Sue cannot be excelled. Add to that a friendly disposition, a lively interest in newspaper work, and you will have a girl who will conquer the journalistic world. Without her, our "Hi-Times" could not hold its head quite so high.

VIRGINIA LEE BOYKIN

Cadet 1; Girls' Athletic Association 2; Girl Reserves 4.

Virginia's ambition is to be a stenographer. With her pleasant, unassuming manner, and her highly efficient nature she will make herself invaluable to some future employer.

JOSEPHINE REBECCA BRADSHAW

Little Theatre 1; Glee Club 2, 3; Chapel Choir 4.
"There are smiles that make us happy," and Jo's seems to do the trick. Has she found the secret of enjoying life? It's, "Be yourself at all costs."

JACQUELYN BRANCH

Latin Club 1, 2; Science Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Girl Scouts 1, 2; Glee Club 4; Girls' Literary Society 4; Cadet 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Little Theatre 1, 2, 3; C. A. R., President 4.

"Jackie," is a model of what the modern young lady should be. Though modest and reserved, she has a personality that is captivating. Her gracious influence will continue to be felt throughout the years to come.

ANNE LEWIS BRATTON

Cadet 1; Girl Scouts 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Latin Club 2; Glee Club 2; LATIPAC Staff 3; Vice President Sophomore Class 2; French Club 4; Science Club 4.

"She's a laughing, peppy dame, always joking, always game, never, never quite the same." And so Anne with her vivaciousness brings happiness into the lives of all her friends.

ARCHIE BROWN

Archie's flashing smile and his sincere friendliness are two of his most indispensable traits. They have won for him life-long friends who are going to follow his career with interest.

DOROTHY MARION BUNN

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Latin Club 1, 2; Girls' Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2, 4; Little Theatre 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Chapel Choir 4; Girls' Literary Society 4; French Club 4.

Dotty, the nightingale of Broughton, has a prominent place in the annals of our school. Her intelligence, her friendliness, her sweet disposition, and her dependability are her characteristics which we sincerely admire.

CHARLES GAINES CAFFERY

Oswego High 1, 2; Stamp Club 1, 2; Orchestra 1, 2; Glee Club 2; Chorus 2; Boys' High 3; Little Theatre 4; Senior Play 4.

Charles has many hobbies; we marvel at his home-grown orchids and his first-editions. Little, alert, mischievous—that's Charles in actual life and as Billy in "New Fires." He has intellectual ability "par excellence."

VIOLA MARY ANN CANADY

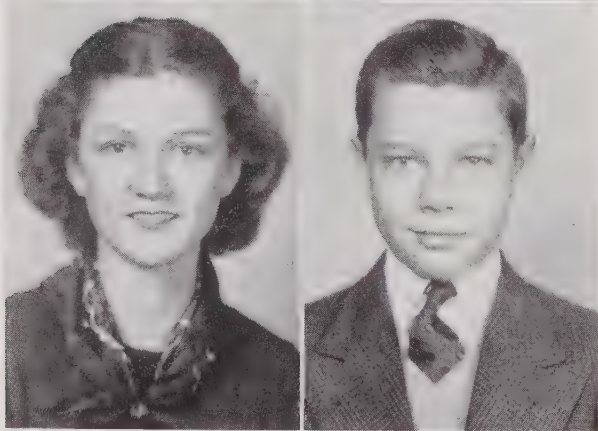

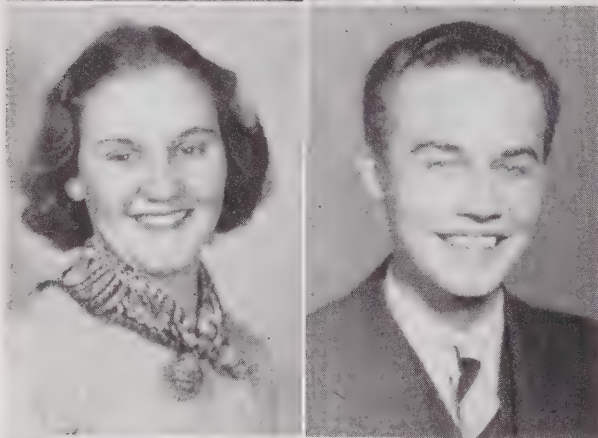

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Girl Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 2, 3, 4; State Music Contest 2, 3, 4; Chairman Standards Committee 3; Chapel Choir 4; Chairman Program Committee 4; Student Council Representative 4.

Mary Ann's quiet poise is indeed an accomplished art. Anyone would be proud to hold so fine a scholastic record. Her interest is not limited to books alone; she finds pleasure in being a true friend.

FRANCES CROWELL CARTER

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, Vice President 3; Science Club 2; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4; French Club 4; Hi-Times Reporter 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Treasurer Girls' A.A.A.

In future years, we will all look back and remember, "Shy-Girl," and recall her as being a charming dark-haired girl. Her personality and ability will have a definite place in our memories.

MARGARET CASTLEMAN

Chapel Hill High School 1; Latin Club 2; Girls' Athletic Association 2; St. Mary's School and Junior College 3; Little Theatre 4; French Club 4.

Peggy is a girl that we'll never forget. When she left Saint Mary's and came over here, it was their loss and our gain. We wish the best of everything to one of Broughton's sweetest blondes.

HARRELL CATES

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Quarter Master 2; Junior Assistant Scout Master 3, 4.

Harrell's life at Broughton has been quiet and unassuming. But it takes the support of those modest folks, too, to insure the success of any organization. He's sure to be a credit to our class in any future thing he undertakes.

CHARLES GAINES CHESTER

Beloit High School, Beloit, Wisconsin 1, 2, 3; Senior Class Play 4; Little Theatre 4; Office Assistant 4.

Charles' willingness to try and his ability to conquer are his greatest assets. Coming to us this year he has played an important part in school activities and has won many friends.

ELIZABETH ANN CHRISTIAN

Hi-Times Reporter 1; Cadet 1; Science Club 2; Student Council 2; Latin Club 1, 2, 3; Treasurer Latin Club 2; Vice President 3; Tennis Club 3; Little Theatre 4; French Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4.

Ann with her wholesome, fun-loving way is loyal and capable. Ever willing to do her share, she is a force in any undertaking.

ELIZABETH GERTRUDE COLE

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Latin Club 1; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Little Theatre 4; Girl Reserves 4; Girls' Literary Society 4; Chapel Choir 4; LATIPAC Staff 4.

"Without a song, the day would never end." All of our day sare happy and joyous when we have Elizabeth's cheery warble to spur us onward.

HAROLD CAMACK COLE

Baseball Team 3, 4; German Club 4.

Harold is modest and reserved. He says little, knows much, performs his task well, and is a challenge to all in a part of upright living.

LOUIS MERCER CONNOR, JR.

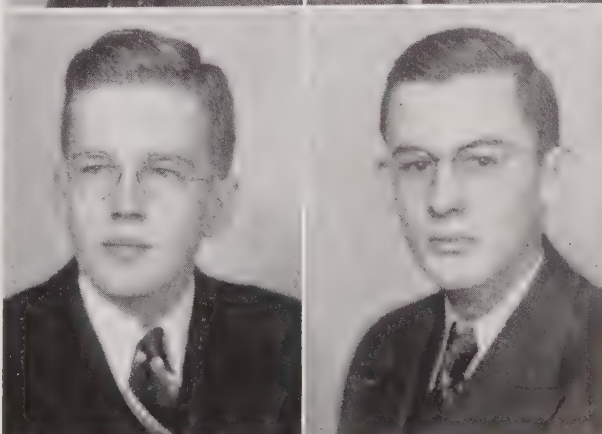

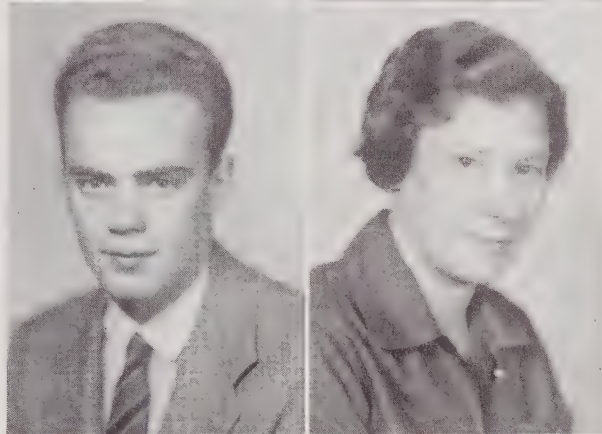

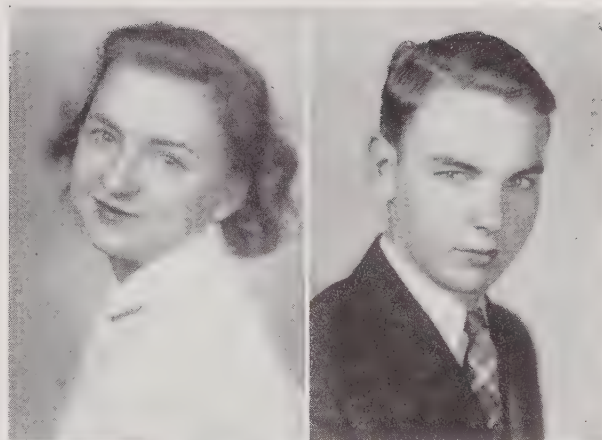

Hugh Morson 1, 2, 3; Press Representative 1, 2; Purple and Gold 1, 2, 3; Hi-Y 2, President 3; Glee Club 3; Science Club 3; Student Council 3. N.B.H.S. 4, 5; Chapel Choir 4; Science Club 5; Hi-Times 4, 5; Hi-Y 4, 5.

Broughton High School's publicity has been carefully guarded and written for the newspapers by energetic Louis. His faithfulness both in his work and play have won for him friends at every turn. The "Hi-Times" staff will remember Louis as the man who did the work.

ARTHUR COOPER

Latin Club 1, 2; Art Club 2; Boys' Glee Club 2, 3; Josephus Daniels Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Model Club 3; German Club 4.

Arthur is ready to work, to serve, to play when the time comes for each. His chief diversion is making model airplanes. Who knows but that it may lead to bigger and better airplanes for America in the future?

LELIA FRANCES CRAVEN

Girl Reserves 1; Latin Club 1, 2; Little Theatre 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; French Club 4; Science Club 4; Chapel Choir 4; Senior Play 4.

Frances is so full of music that it just "bubbles o'er" and finds expression in her dancing feet; and she has danced her way into all our hearts. We predict a brilliant stage career for our own beloved "Pavlova."

WILLIAM MORING CRAVEN

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 2, 3, 4; President 4; Tennis Club 3; Student Council 3, 4; Orchestra 2, 4.

William is one of our prodigies. He doesn't let "Rome burn" while he fiddles. He's too busy exploring the wonders of the universe—man-made as well as natural; National Scout Jamboree, World Scout Jamboree, Nature trip, and camping expeditions from the mountains to the sea!

CHRISTINA FRIEDLIN CREEKMORE

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Girl Scouts 1, 2; Glee Club 3, 4, President 4; Carnival Queen Attendant 3, 4; Tennis Club 3; Chapel Choir 4; Student Council 4; Delegate to State Congress 4; Little Theatre 4; Team Captain for Magazine Campaign 4; French Club 4.

We can always depend on Christina to help in any school activity. Possessing a winsome personality and a sunny disposition, she has a charm which makes her irresistible to all.

HOLMES McLEAN CROOM

Burgaw High School 1. Greensboro High School 2. Art Club 3, 4.

Although he is a new student in our school, Holmes has established a place for himself through his courteous and considerate attitude. Then, too, he has the wonderful record of never having been tardy throughout his entire school career.

RUTH DAVIDSON

Class President 1, 2, Secretary 3, 4; Girl Scouts 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 2; Science Club 2; Student Council 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2; Marshal 3; Little Theatre 3, 4; German Club 3, 4, Treasurer 3, Secretary 4; Senior Play 4.

To one of the best representatives of Broughton youth, we bow. Her keen wit, her excellence in scholarship, and her fun loving nature have gained for her one of the highest senior honors, Miss N.B.H.S.

DAVID MARTIN DAVIS

Boys' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club 3, 4; Assistant Editor Hi-Times 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4.

To David, goes a good portion of the credit for the extraordinary success of our "Hi-Times." His untiring efforts and his friendly coöperation have resulted in a fine newspaper. He hasn't definitely decided what he wants to be, but he could really be a great journalist.

GERTRUDE HARRIETTE DAVIS

Dancing 1, 2, 3; Girl Reserves 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4; Piano Team 4.

We can't decide about Peggy. Pianist? Singer? Dancer? Well, maybe she'll fool us and dance around her piano as she plays the accompaniment to her songs. Whichever you take up, Peggy, you're bound to make good.

ROBERT EDWARD DEMAIN

Model Airplane Club 4.

Robert's ambition is to become a hilly-billy singer on radio. With his excellent knowledge of the mechanics and intricacies of radio, he will always be certain of the right distance to stand from the "mike" when he soars forth with yo-ho-da-leddy-ooooooooo!

WILLIAM MCKINNEY DERBY

Sound Crew Chairman 2, 3, 4; Stage Manager 3, 4; Motion Picture Operator 3, 4; Little Theatre 3, 4; Technical Department 4.

To Bill, we present our biggest and brightest laurels. For indispensable service, for cheerful willingness to do anything, for the most capable stage manager that Broughton will ever have, we sing loud praises.

JAMES EUGENE DE VOGT

Fenton High School, Fenton, Michigan 1, 2, 3; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 4; Band and Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Operetta 3; Dramatics Play 3; Junior Play 3; Hi-Y 3, 4; Dramatics Club Treasurer 3; Chapel Choir 4.

A newcomer has to work fast to become popular in a year; yet this boy, with his pleasing personality, has done just that. He is a modern "Don Juan"; yet when the smoke has cleared, he is at home practicing his trombone.

LOUISE JACQUELINE DICKENS

Frankford High, Philadelphia, Penn. 1, 2; Girl Reserves 3, 4.

With her mischievous, brown eyes and a sweet winning smile, Jacqueline has endeared herself to us all. Sociable, lovable, and captivating—her company is sought by young and old alike.

MARJORIE HALES DIDENHOVER

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Little Theatre 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2, 3, Vice President 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Delegate to Student Council Congress 3; Junior-Senior Committee 3; LATIPAC Staff 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4; French Club 4, Secretary 4; Vice President Senior Class 4; Senior Play Committee 4.

Quiet and unassuming, but a fine student and friend, that's Margie. Her gay posters have adorned our bulletin boards, and her excellent student council work has helped keep our school in the forefront. In spite of her numerous activities, Margie has consistently maintained honor-roll standing.

FANNIE KATHLEEN DIZOR

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Glee Club 1; Home Room Cadet 2; Cheer Leader 4.

Our curly-haired Kat is one of Broughton's sweetest girls. Her sunny smile and her sincere friendliness attract all of us. There's nothing artificial about her—she's true blue.

JAMES DAVID DODGE

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 1, 2; Cadet 2; Science Club 2, 4; German Club 3, 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Cub Den Chief 3, 4; Bird Club 4; First Honorable Mention, State Physics Contest; Daniels Literary Society, 4.

To our future physicist, Broughton looks with pride. David Dodge will always be remembered by the class of '33 for the outstanding work in the classroom and his enduring friendliness.

MARGARET DUNAWAY

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Little Theatre 1, 2, 4, Vice President 2; Glee Club 3, 4, Greensboro Contest 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4; French Club 4, Treasurer 4; LATIPAC Staff 4, Costume Committee, Senior Play 4.

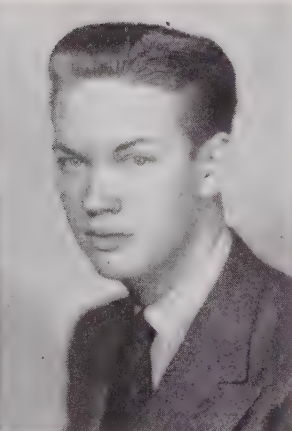

Dependability, sincerity, intelligence, and a magnetic personality, that's Margie. Teachers know that she's ready for service, and all the students admire her faithful friendliness.

HAZEL PAGE EATMAN

Latin Club 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1; Little Theatre 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2, Vice President 3, President 4; Music Festival, Greensboro 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Girl Reserves 2, 3; LATIPAC Staff 3, 4; Chapel Choir 4; Senior Play 4, Committee 4; Senior Marshal 4; Versatility Superlative 4; Contest Play 4.

Versatile—that's our Page. Possessing sincerity, friendliness, and dependability, she has found her way into the hearts of students and faculty. With her resourcefulness and magnetic personality, success is her destiny.

BETTY WHYTE ELLINGTON

Cathedral School 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1; Tennis Club 3; French Club 4; Spanish Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Senior Play Publicity Committee 4. Frivolous and gay when the event is social; serious and studious when studies are involved; enthusiastic and alert on all occasions—in fact, Betty is just a whole-hearted, wide-awake girl whose company is eagerly sought by all her acquaintances.

MAX FERRELL

Glee Club 1; Boosters Club 1; Latin Club 1; Little Theatre 1, 2.

Quiet but dependable, Max has won the esteem of the class of '38 during his two year sojourn at Broughton. We wish for him the brilliant future which he so richly deserves.

MARGARET YVONNE FERRELL

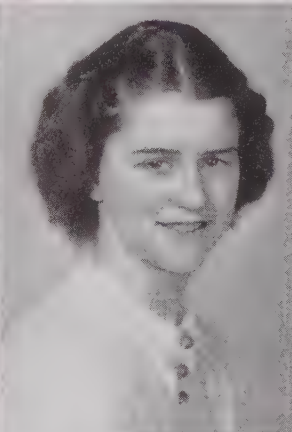

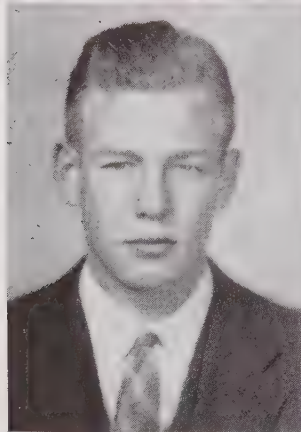

Girls' Athletic Association 2; LATIPAC Staff 4.

Yvonne has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time—in other words, she is diplomatic and clever. Her ambition is to be a secretary; and with her splendid qualifications and winsome personality, does anyone doubt that she will attain her goal?

ALICE JEAN FINCH

Girl Scouts 1; Latin Club 1, 2, 3; Girls' Athletic Association 2; Tennis Club 2, 3; Science Club 2, 3; Little Theatre 2, 4; Glee Club 4; Treasurer Girls' Literary Society 4.

Tall, stately, dignified—that's Jean. There is a twinkle in her eyes that portrays an avid sense of humor, and a pleasant smile for everyone. Friends? They are as numberless as the stars.

ROBERT EDWIN FINCH

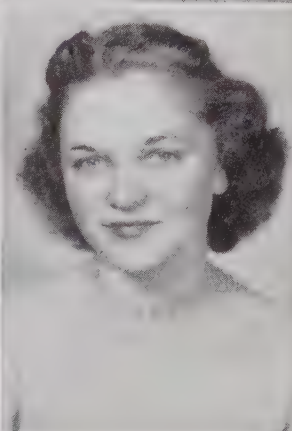

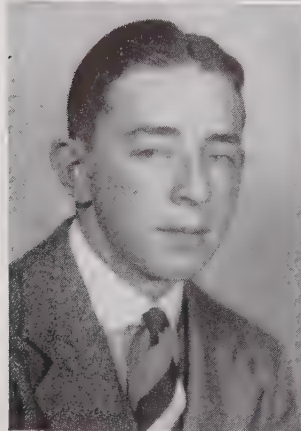

Varsity Football Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Swimming Team 2, 3; Hi-Y 3, 4; Monogram Club 3, 4.

Our gum-chewing, tow-headed Bob is a perfect example of easy going football heroes. He received plenty of glory on the gridiron, but it hasn't spoiled him. If he tackles all future obstacles as he did his football foes, then he's slated for fame.

ELIZABETH NELMS FLOURNOY

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Girl Scouts 1, 2; Latin Club 1, 2, Secretary 2; Little Theatre 1, 2, 4; Cadet 2; Girl Reserves 2; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Cheer Leader 4; Office Assistant 4; Chapel Choir 4; Senior Play 4; Reporter Hi-Times 4; LATIPAC Staff, Associate Editor 3, 4; Music Festival, Greensboro, 4; Class Night Committee.

She's really a peppy little girl, having proved this as one of our most capable cheer leaders. She's sure to "rise and shine," just as Angie did in "New Fires," Act III, Scene II!

HARVEY STEPHENSON FOGG

Glee Club 1; Football 2; Boys' Literary Society 3; Dramatic Club 4; Baseball 4.

What would we do without Harvey? When skies were gray, he laughed and brought back the sun; when all of us were down in the dumps, he kidded and cheered us. He's a real doctor of the blues, and we wish him all the success in the world.

JANE ELIZABETH FORBES

Greenville High School 1, 2; Girls' Literary Society 1; Glee Club 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2. Needham Broughton High 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 3, 4; French Club 4; Little Theatre 4; Carnival Queen Attendant 4.

The saying, "Beauty is only skin deep," is wrong! Jane's beauty is famous, but it goes right down to her heart. She's sweet and sincere, and a student loved by all.

CLARA MARGARET FORSTER

French Club 4; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Girl Scouts 1, 2, 3; Girl Reserves 4; Attendant Carnival Queen 4; Home Room Cadet 2, 4.

Utterly feminine is Clara, with talents varied. She has the domestic touch, but the great out-of-doors attracts her. Her musical inclination gives her future bright promise.

DIXIE CARROLL FRENCH

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Science Club 2; French Club 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; Little Theatre 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Attendant Carnival Queen 4; Senior Play Marshal 4; Health Room 4; Girls' Basketball Team, Captain 4; President Girls' A.A.

Dixie is dainty and darling. She's fond of sports; and, like a true athlete, understands the full meaning of the term "sportsmanship." True to her name, she is a real Southern belle.

MARY DELIA FULGHUM

Girls' Athletic Association 1; Science Club 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club 4.

Life's sea is a calm one for Mary. Her days run smoothly and unhurriedly. Fortune will surely smile on one so capable, so considerate of others, so serene and unperturbed.

PHIFER FULLENWIDER, JR.

Glee Club 2; Junior Football Team 2; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Band and Orchestra 3, 4; Spanish Club, President 4.

Phifer, better known as "Pretty Boy," is destined to be an outstanding sensation in the musical world. Here's hoping that in the near future we'll be dancing to the music of his world famous band.

MACK LEIGHTON FULLER, JR.

Band 1, 2; Tennis Club 3; Art Club 3; Tennis Team 3, 4; Christ School, Football; Glee Club, Basketball, Tennis. Mars Hill, Science Club, Tennis Team, Football team 4; Spanish Club 4.

Mac is one of these few people who may be classed as versatile; he is a rare combination of an artist and an athlete. We are indeed proud that he returned to Broughton to graduate with the class of '38.

MARION MIOT FULLER, JR.

Latin Club 1, 2; Science Club 2; Track Team 3; Boys' Glee Club 4; Bird Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Hi-Y Club 4; Co-Program Chairman 4.

A thoroughly fine pal is Marion. He is a loyal member of our class, always eager to do his share in any activity. Seldom do we see a boy who has such a choice combination of fine characteristics.

MARY FRANCES GERLING

Cathedral School 1; Girls' Athletic Association 2, 3; Girl Reserves 3; Little Theatre 4; French Club 4; Girls' Literary Society 4; LATIPAC Advertising Staff 4.

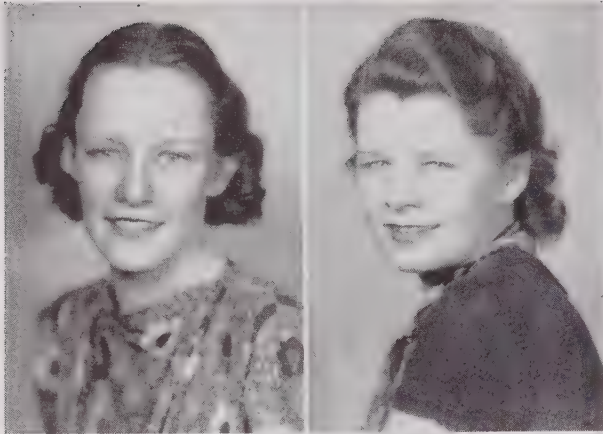

Sweet and demure—these words describe her perfectly. Her friends, and even casual acquaintances, are impressed by her sincerity. That is her fortune.

Boy Scouts 1, 2; Science Club 2; Manager Football 3, 4; Monogram Club 4.

William Gill, better known as "Buddy," has a smile and a greeting for everyone. All his friends and associates will remember him for his splendid management of the football team. Who knows, some day he may be manager of the Green Bay Packers or some other professional football team.

WILLIE CATHERINE GILLIS

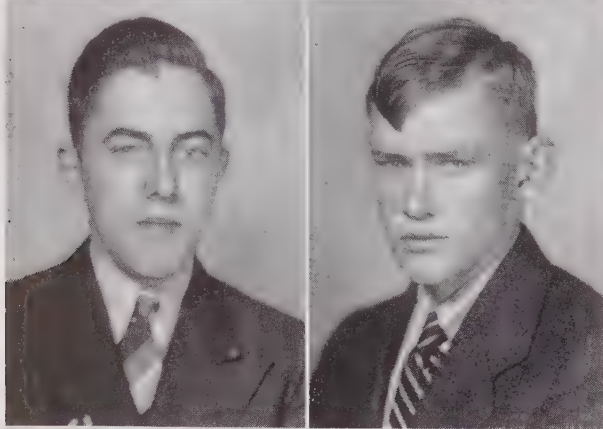

Hugh Morson High School: Girl Reserves 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Class Secretary 2; Morson Literary Society 2, 3; Dramatic Club 3; Art Club Secretary-Treasurer 3. Broughton High School: Girls' Literary Society 4; Little Theatre 4.

Catherine is one of our most scholarly seniors and, also, one of our most beloved. Just as quietly as she assumes responsibility, she masters it, and goes serenely on her way, always working toward greater goals.

EDNA MAE GILLIS

Biscoe High School 1, 2, 3; Class President 3; French Club 4.

Edna, the tall charming girl from Biscoe, has acquired many friends since she entered our school. She always has a smile and a friendly word for everyone. May success crown her every effort!

CHARLES FLAVIUS GOODNO

Student Council 2; Hi-Y 3, 4; Monogram Club 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4.

Businesslike and thoroughly efficient, Charles can always be depended on to measure up to his responsibilities. We believe in you, Charles, and are expecting great things of you!

THOMAS I. GRAY

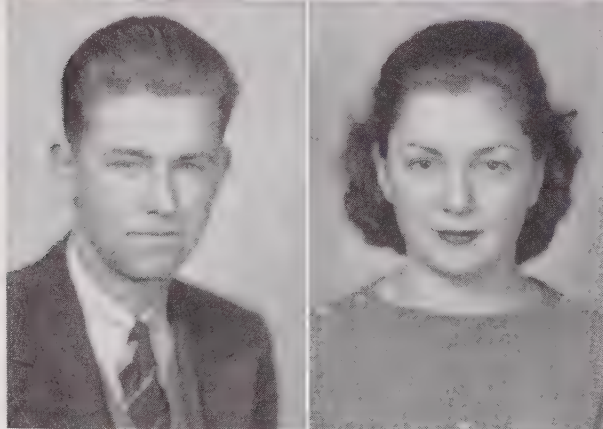

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

Tom is quiet and shy—never dashing hither and yon, as so many of our "dignified" seniors do. He works consistently in anything he undertakes—always coming through with flying colors.

ELWOOD HARPER

"Nature made him what he is, and never made another." At no place but Broughton could one find a person just like Elwood. His friendly manner, plus his pleasant smile and warm handclasp, has drawn to him a circle of close friends.

JENNILLE HARRIS

Alexander Graham Jr. High School, Charlotte, N. C., 1, 2. Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3; LATIPAC Staff 3; Student Council Delegate to State Congress 4; Chapel Choir Vice President 4; French Club 4; Little Theatre 4; Chief Marshal 4; Carnival Queen 4.

Jennille speaks for herself. She is admired by all and because of her beauty she was selected the "belle of our class." She will go far in anything, for her personality is as attractive as her countenance.

JACK HOBBY HEDRICK

We wonder if all the time Jack has spent in the library has been given to parallel reading! If so, he has a valuable store of knowledge—make the most of it, Jack!

NORTH SMITH HINKLE

Latin Club 1, 2; Science Club 1, 2; Boy Scouts, 1, 2; Tennis Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3; Tennis Team 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; German Club 3, 4, Vice President 4; Hi-Y Club 3, 4; Student Council 4, Chairman of Publicity Committee 4.

Witty, athletic, fun-loving, popular, original—in fact, practically every interesting word in the dictionary can be applied to North. As captain of the tennis team and wit among the Senior Superlatives, "Hinky" has left a mark that will be hard for future Seniors to excel.

DANIEL MARSHALL HODGES, JR.

Winston-Salem High School 1, 2; Boy Scouts 1, 2; Junior Hi-Y 1, 2. First Prize State Art Contest 3, 4; Literary Society 2, 3, Treasurer 4; LATIPAC Art Editor 3, 4, 5; Debating Alternate 4, Team 5; First Prize National Defense Week Contest 4; Art Club 4, 5, President 4; Deutscher Verein 4, President 5; Science Club 5; Superlative, Scholarship 5; Hi-Y 4, Secretary 5; Student Council 5; Little Theatre 5; Student Council Award 5.

Dan's success in the art department is incomparable. His artistic ability is his biggest asset, and is destined to carry him to great heights. And his excellence in scholarship has placed him among our superlatives. Dan is really the one of whom we're going to say, "I knew him when—."

JOE LAWRENCE HODGE

Glee Club 3, 4, President 4; Chapel Choir 4; Little Theatre 4.

Although quiet in his manner, Joe is a valuable member to our class. As tenor in the Glee Club and in the male quartet, he has proved himself a second Richard Crooks. Maybe, someday Joe will step right into Richard's shoes. He has the ability.

RUBY DEREMA HOGAN

Glee Club 1, 2; Girl Reserves 2.

"To know her is to love her." Ruby cast her lot with us last year, and very soon proved her worth as a sincere friend and outstanding scholar.

IRMA HOLDING

Hugh Morson 3; Girls' Athletic Association 1.

Irma is a demure little blond. She is not given to talking constantly, as are most young ladies in high school; therefore, she is usually "seen and not heard," except at the appropriate time; then everyone stands at attention.

CAREY H. HOLLOWAY, JR.

Hugh Morson High School 1; Boy Scouts 1; German Club 3, Vice President 3; Model Airplane Club 3; Science Club 4; Art Club 4, Treasurer 4; Literary Society 4.

Two years ago Carey whizzed down the hill to become the winner of Raleigh's first soap-box derby, thereby, proving what his friends had known for some time—that Carey is a "whiz." We don't see how he finds the time to paint pictures, make automobiles, and stay on the honor roll month after month.

WILLIAM KERN HOLOMAN

Latin Club 1, 2; Student Council 1, 3, 4; Literary Society 2, 3, Secretary 3; State Dramatic Contest 3; Mixed Chorus 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Vice President 4; Hi-Times 3, 4, Editor-in-Chief 4; Motion Picture Committee 4; Chairman French Club 4; High School Sports Reporter for the Raleigh Times 4.

*The boy with the infectious grin and the blonde hair who runs around quoting poetry is not Longfellow—he's Kern, our "Hi-Times" editor. His accomplishments are many: tenor, poet, scholar, journalist, and humorist. He is truly a gentleman.*

JACK ASBILL HOLT

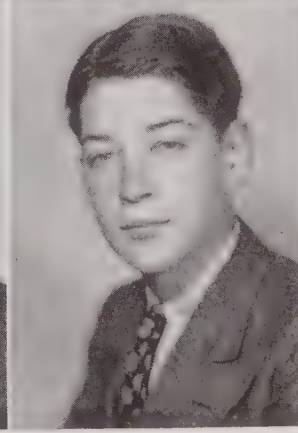

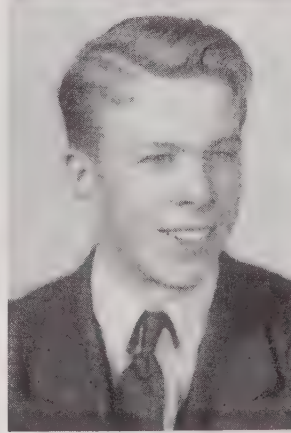

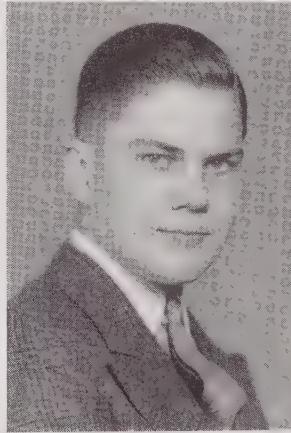

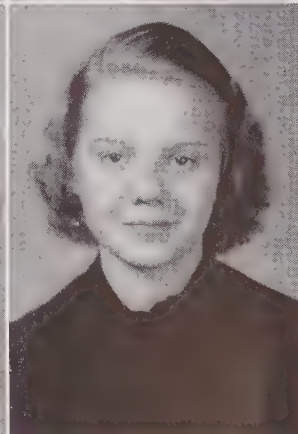

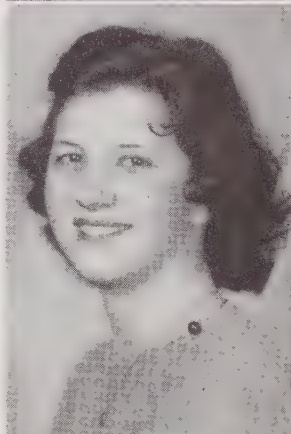

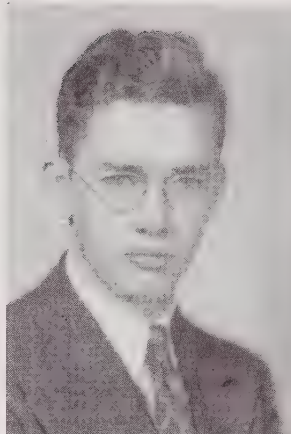

Boy Scouts 1, 2; Science Club 2; Baseball Club 3; Basketball Club 4; Spanish Club 4; Monogram Club 4.

Jack is Broughton's blond flash on the baseball diamond. His good looks and his athletic ability are big factors in his popularity. Jack is the kind of boy who helps put Broughton on the map.

JULIAN SUTTON HORTON

Little Theatre 1; Secretary of Class 1; Latin Club 1, 2; Science Club 1, 2, 3; Boys' Choir 2; Boys' Literary Society 2; Tennis Club 2, 3; Election Committee 2, 3, 4; Boy Scouts 2, 3; Home Room Representative 3; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; German Club 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Chapel Choir 4.

Julian's conversation, appearance, and conduct on all occasions show the marks of a true gentleman. His occasional good-natured thrusts of humor are better appreciated because he is generally so sedate. Few Broughton students enjoy such universal good will and esteem as he.

FRANCES JOSEPHINE HUDSON

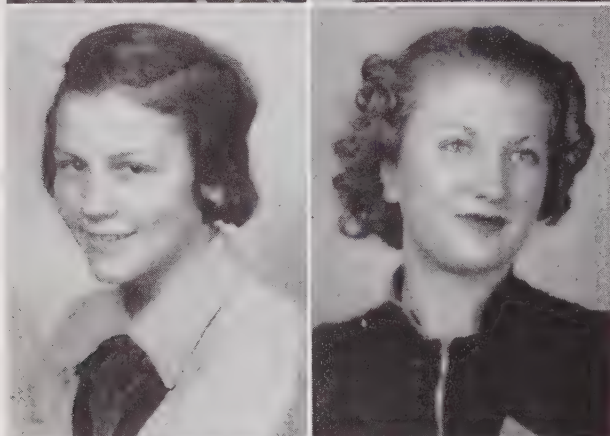

Hugh Morson 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1; Girls' Glee Club 4.

Frances chose the quiet studious way of life, and by her perseverance and determination has made a good record for herself. She has many qualities which are admired by all who know her.

JAMES TABOR HUTCHINS

Latin Club 1; Orchestra 1; Boy Scouts 1, 2; Science Club 4.

Jim has won the respect and admiration of students and teachers by his quiet, easy manner and his conscientious performance of duty. He is truly a "man of his word."

MARY SUSAN JACKSON

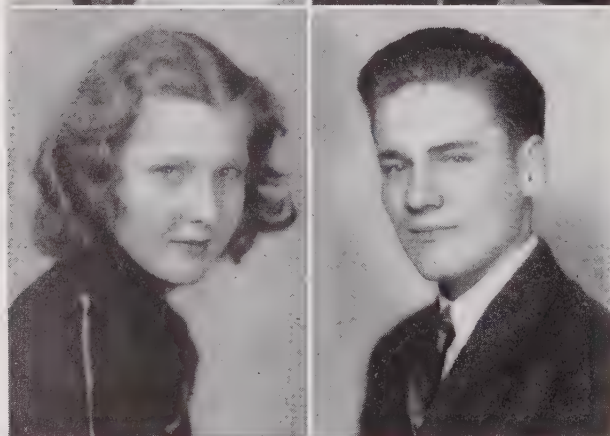

Science Club 2, 3, 4, Vice President 4; Latin Club 3, Secretary 3; Debating Alternate 3; Bird Club, 4, Vice President 4.

She's shy and quiet, but in that small dark head there is stored a world of knowledge. Her intense interest in nature has made those big brown eyes shine.

MAMIE BONNER JENNETTE

Little Theatre 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Girls' Basketball Team 4; French Club 4; Health Room 4; Girls' A.A. 4.

Anyone can look at that animated expression on Mamie's face and know that she loves living! Her delightful humor has made her a lively member of our class. She has done her work well, entering into it with spirit rarely found.

MILDRED MAE JENNETTE

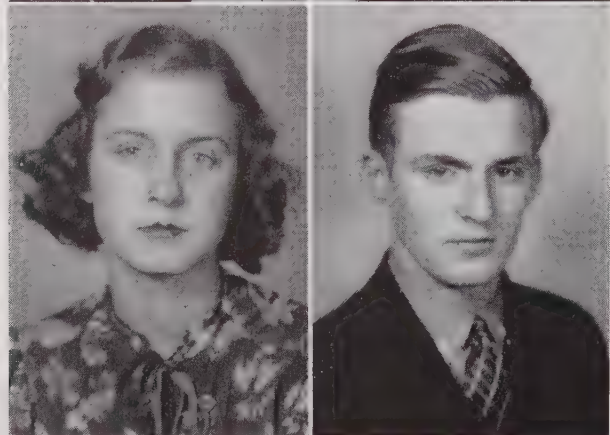

Girls' Athletics Association 2; Science Club 2; Little Theatre 4; Girls' Glee Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; French Club 4; Girls' Basketball Team 4; Secretary Girls' A.A. 4.

Mildred is dainty and quiet, sweet and reserved—"a lady of most diverse enchantments." Her ambition is to become an interior decorator, and with her eye for color and harmony and her creative imagination, she will lend beauty and charm to any project which she undertakes.

ERVIN M. JOHNSON, JR.

Boy Scouts 1, 2; Baseball 4; Junior Football Team, 4; Hi-Y Club 5.

Ervin has a broad grin, a witty remark, and a pleasant word for everybody. A familiar sight is he, cramming for a chemistry quiz. Whether the cramming helped or not is unknown; but this is well known—that our ball playing Ervin is one of the senior favorites.

MARY INA JOHNSON

Little Theatre 4; Glee Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; French Club 4.

We have learned to depend on Mary Ina. Her modesty and ability, coupled with determination, have made her a good student. With her admirable qualities and high ideals, we are safe in prophecying a bright future for this member of the class of '38.

ALLEN BANKERT JONES

Boydton High School, Boydton, Va., 1, 2, 3.
We wonder, when we see Allen in deep meditation, if his thoughts are: "Carry me back to ole' Virginie"—if so, he is very successful in keeping his longings for old friends and acquaintances to himself. He adapted himself to his new environment and has made many friends during his one year at Broughton.

FRANK A. JONES, JR.

Vero Beach Fla., High School 1, 2, 3. Boys' Literary Society 4; Science Club 4; Photography Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4.

Frank deserted the "Land of Sunshine" to join us this year but he never seemed "a stranger in our midst." Immediately we recognized in him the fine attributes of loyalty, straightforwardness, and trustworthiness that made him a very welcomed member of our class.

HELEN ELIZABETH JORDAN

Black Mountain High School 1; Ahoskie High School 2, 3; French Club 4; Girls' Literary Club 4.

Fun loving is Helen, and a good sport—one of those persons who add zest to life. We did without her the first two years in N. B. H. S., but now she's made herself indispensable.

MARY FRANCES JORDAN

Home Room Cadet 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; LATIPAC Staff 3; Girls' Athletic Association 4. If there was any typing to be done, Mary Frances was always ready. Her neat work won her a reputation as one of our best typists. Her many friends are looking forward to the day when "Tea" will be some executive's secretary.

CARLTON ELIZABETH KELLY

Cadet 1; Girl Scout 1; Little Theatre 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Girls' Literary Society 2, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; French Club 4; Chapel Choir 4; LATIPAC Staff, Associate Editor 4; Senior Play Prompter 4; Music Festival, Greensboro 3, 4.

Elizabeth is first of all a good manager, and this quality has made her a valuable member to our class. She is a true friend, a delightful companion, and can always be depended upon when she's needed.

WADE F. KEMP, JR.

Boys' Glee Club 3; State Play 3; Little Theatre 4; Chapel Choir 4; President of Glee Club 4.

He forever looks as though he just escaped from a colored plate in "Esquire." Wade's excellent tenor voice has aided him in his capacity as the Don Juan of Needham Broughton. May he always take the same attitude toward his career that he has taken in regard to his apparel; he doesn't follow the fashions, he creates them.

JAMES THURMAN KENYON

High School Band 1, 2; Science Club 1, 2; Boys Glee Club 1, 2, 3.

"All work and no play makes Thurman a dull boy"—and so Thurman doesn't work all the time! But don't let him fool you—he's as smart as he is witty.

CENTENNIAL C. KING

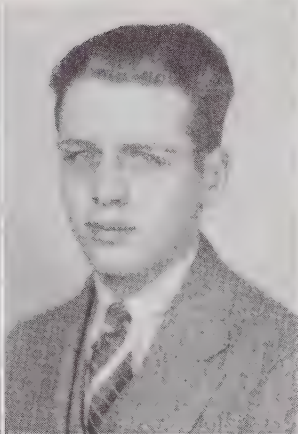

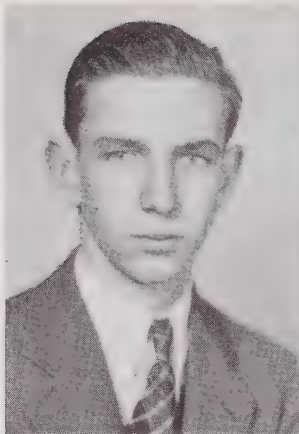

Centennial is always obliging no matter how busy he may be. His excellence in woodwork makes us certain he will "carve" for himself a prominent niche in the world of affairs.

MARY ELIZABETH KIRBY

Walnut Cove High School 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Club 1, 2; Glee Club 2. N. B. H. S. 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3; Girl Scouts 3; French Club 4.

Mary's amiable smile and geniality have unlocked many hearts for her. In her future teaching career we know her biology students will love her as much as we do.

HENRY ARTHUR KLUTTZ

Henry's years at Broughton have been devoted to service and to mastery of the tools of learning. He has been faithful in the performance of every task and loyal in his support of every class activity.

MARTIN BAER KOHN

Boy Scouts 1, 2; Hugh Morson 3; Junior Football Team 3; Science Club 4; Josephus Daniels Literary Society 4; Business Staff of LATIPAC 4.

Martin's friends in the Josephus Daniels Literary Society will testify that his effective stump speeches have helped elect many of the officers of the society. His ability to think clearly and argue convincingly fit him for a responsible place on "the Globe."

THOMAS WILLIAM LAMBE

Elections Committee 1, 2, 3, Chairman 4; Student Council 1, 2, 4; Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2, Vice President; Science Club 2; Tennis Club 3, Team 3, Co-Captain 4; Track Team, Co-Captain 3; Junior Marshal 3; German Club 3, 4; Hi-Y President 4; Prophet of Class 4; Student Council Award 4.

Because Billy is capable, we have loaded him with responsibility; because he is original, we have welcomed his ideas; because he is clever, we have enjoyed his company. Here's to a forceful leader, a superior scholar, and a jolly pal!

EDITH CAROLINE LEAVISTER

N. B. H. S. 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4. Sanford High School 4.

"I love the whole world," seems to be Edith's philosophy of life; and her luminous brown eyes reflect the thought ardently. She hasn't been with us these last few months, but all the good-will which she has radiated has come home to her.

JULIA REAMS LEE

Girl Scouts 1, 2; Transferred from Hugh Morson 2; Girl Reserves 1, 2, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 4; Chapel Choir 4; Little Theatre 4; Chairman of Music Committee Girl Reserves 4; Carnival Queen Attendant 4; French Club 4; Superlative, Scholarship 4.

Our scholarship superlative's looks would betray her intellectual self. She has laughing blue eyes and dimpled cheeks which many girls envy. That effervescent personality will make her a favorite wherever she goes.

JOHN WALTER LEE

Cary High School 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Football 1; Athletic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 1, 2; President Monogram Club 4; Hi-Y 4. Needham B. Broughton High School: Football 5; Monogram Club 5; Spanish Club 5.

Good looking, athletic, friendly—Walter crashed his way to the front ranks of our class in one year in the same sportsmanlike way that he crashed the lines of every opponent on the football field. His determination and persistence have brought him fame on the gridiron and in every phase of school life.

SUSANNE GRISWOLD LEINSTER

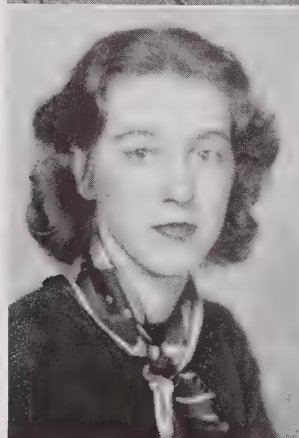

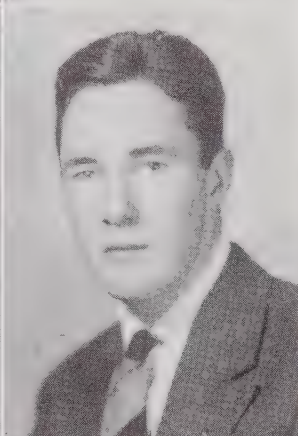

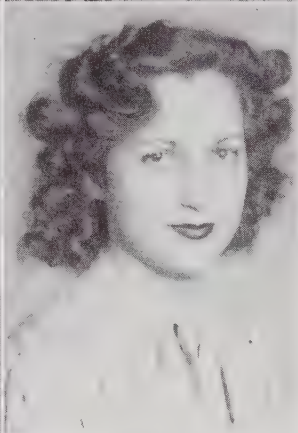

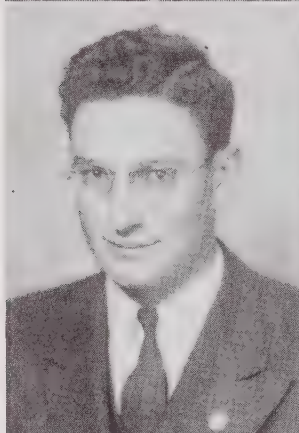

Glee Club 1; Little Theatre 2, 3, 4; French Club 4.

It was a break for Broughton when Susie decided to come back from Hawaii and graduate here. Her "come hither" look and her magnetic ways have endeared her to all of us, and she may rest assured she will always remain a pleasant memory to Broughton.

DOROTHY MAE LLOYD

Girls' Reserve Club 1; Science Club 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Cafeteria 2, 3; Girls' Basketball Team 4; Girls' A.A. 4.

Dorothy's beaming smiles add to the wealth of the world. She's wide awake and alert on the basketball court—and her game of life is played in the same wholesome spirit as her basketball—clean and fine and sportsmanlike.

WILLIAM FIGGATT LOVELL

Little Theatre 1; Science Club 1, 2, 3, Sergeant-at-Arms 3; Marshal 3; Tennis Club 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 3, Editor-in-Chief 4; Student Council 4; Carnival Attendant 4; Hi-Y Club 4.

Praises to our LATIPAC Editor-in-Chief! He has originality, tact, executive ability, and patience. He is a sincere friend and a very popular member of the class of '38.

ALLAN B. MACINTYRE

Sound Crew 2, 3, 4; Assistant Stage Manager 3; Motion Picture Operator 3, 4; Stage Manager 4.

Honor where honor is due! Allan's contributions to Broughton have been valuable beyond description. Whether stage scenery is to be built, clocks and bells to be adjusted, radios to be installed, or motion pictures to be shown—Allan, as a member of the stage crew, is right there to help do the job.

FRANCES ELIZABETH McCARY

Girl Reserves 3, 4; Little Theatre 4.

Elizabeth McCary came from the city of Durham in 1935. Her ambition is to become a designer. She is attractive, congenial, studious, and ambitious. As a designer, we think that she will go far, because she has a vivid imagination, good taste, and good judgment.

NANCY VIRGINIA McCARY

Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Chairman Social Committee 2, 3; Girl Scouts 1; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Carnival Maid of Honor 4; Office Assistant 2; Latin Club 2, 3.

Nancy seems always to be bubbling over with the joy of living. Wholehearted optimism and enthusiasm characterize her every undertaking. As president of the Girl Reserves, she has demonstrated that her skill as an executive is exceeded only by her ability to make friends.

J. L. MARKS, JR.

Glee Club 1, 2; Literary 1, 2; Band 1, 2, 3; Football 2; Little Theatre 4.

A drum stick in one hand, a fashion book in the other, a mop of blonde curls, and a smile that spreads from ear to ear—that's J. L. His ability as master of the drums, his stylish clothes, and his lively personality will bring him fame.

HELEN ELIZABETH MARTIN

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Girl Reserves 1, 2; Girls' Glee Club 1, 3; Dancing 2, 3; Piano Team 4.

To Broughton's red-haired feminine Paderewski, we bow. Her lightning speed at the keyboard has brightened many an hour for us. Helen is leaving for the far north soon. Although her presence will no longer be felt, memories of her will remain fixed in our hearts.

MARGARET KENDALL MARTIN

Girl Reserves 1, 2; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Cadet 1; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 2, 3; Committee for Footballs 3; Cheer Leader 4.

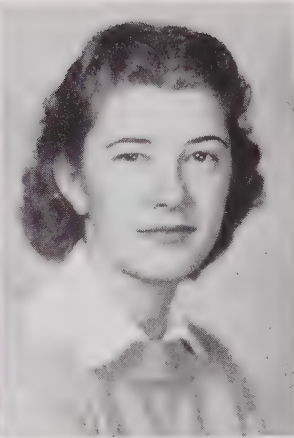

If "Pretty is as pretty does," then there's no question as to Margaret's beauty. She's friendly and sincere and a girl whom everyone likes. And her looks—well, she's bound to make a success of her future if looks mean anything!

WILLIAM T. MARTIN, JR.

Student Council 1, 3, 4, 5, President 5; Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3; Literary Society 2, 3, 4, 5; Ring Committee 3; Tennis Club 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4, 5; Hi-Times 3, 5; LATIPAC Staff 3, 4, Business Manager 4; Honor Society 4; Triangular Debating Team 4; German Club 4, 5; State Student Council Congress 4, 5; Little Theatre 5; Senior Play 5; Mr. N. B. H. S. 5; Tennis Team 5.

Seldom is a student body so fortunate as to have a leader with the vision, the poise, and the insight that W. T. has. Under his able guidance, the Student Council has promoted many projects for the enrichment of student life. Representing the finest ideals of Broughton students, he was unanimously elected Mr. Needham Broughton.

MARGARET JOSEPHINE MEDLOCK

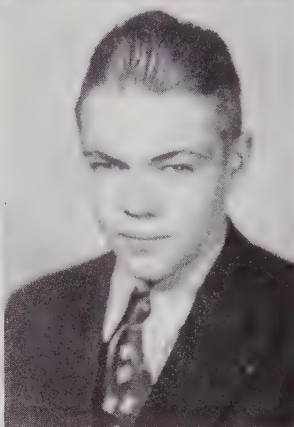

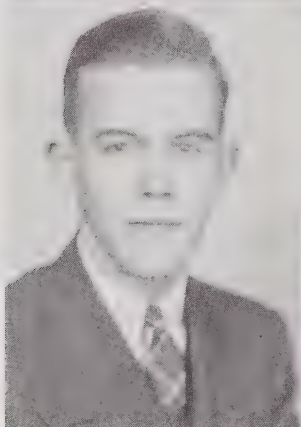

Girl Scout 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Girl Reserves 3; LATIPAC Staff 4; Vice President Home Economic Class 4.

"If you would have a friend be one" is Margaret's motto. Her quiet dignity, delightful and unselfish disposition and her high ideals combine to make her one of Broughton's finest students.

CHARLOTTE EVA MILLER

Glee Club 1, 2; Student Council 2; Little Theatre 2, 3; Treasurer Class 3; French Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Senior Marshal 4.

Her charming personality, her sparkling sense of humor, and her entire self—each has made Charlotte, otherwise known as "Nigger," one of our most refreshing seniors.

SAM BARTLETTE MILLER, JR.

Band 1, 2; Boys' Glee Club 4; Little Theatre 4.

If you want tickets sold, call on Sam. Or if you wish to buy one, he will sell it to you and take you to the performance all for the price of the ticket. No wonder our Senior Play and District Contest were financial successes with such efficiency on the part of this clever salesman.

JOSEPH WILSON MOONEYHAM, JR.

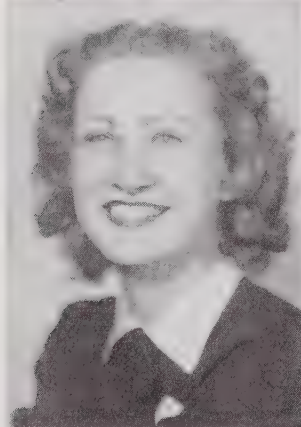

Garner High School 1, 2, 3.

Joseph is a "go-getter" who refuses to give up. If the problem is hard, then he wrestles with it until it is solved. Although he has been at Broughton for only his Senior year, he has made us all sit up and take notice!

AUDREY MAE MOORE

Central High School, Washington, D. C., 3. Girls' Glee Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Little Theatre 4; Girls' Basketball Team 4.

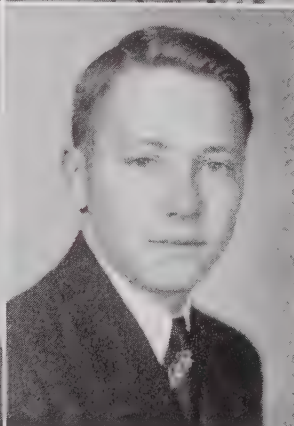

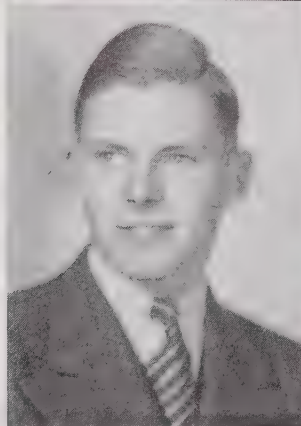

Audrey's cheerfulness and ability to do her work well has made her a popular member of our class. We know her as the girl with the "laughing blue eyes."

PAUL MILTON MOORE

Rifle Club 1; Student Council 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Latin Club 1, 2, 3; Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3; Music Contest 3; Orchestra 3, 4; LATIPAC 4; Hi-Y 5; Head Cheer Leader 5.

The proprietor of the gaudy, one-wheeled trailer we have seen rolling around, is curly-haired Paul. The handsome Mr. Moore is the originator of the popular "Swingmaster Band" that has brought him renown from far and near.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MORDECAI, JR.

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; Science Club; Swimming Team 3, Treasurer; Bird Club 4; Sea Scouts 4, Coxswain.

We shall always remember George as a quiet, reserved, young man with a smile so friendly and warm that no one can resist its magnetism. He is a consistent, ambitious student, who impresses teachers and classmates with his many sterling qualities.

SAMUEL FOX MORDECAI

Boy Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Class Historian 4.

Sam's quiet nature, his friendliness, and his love of living, have characterized his life at Broughton. Without him, our basketball team would have been lost. Sam, make your future as bright and clean as your games have been, and remember that you have an army of friends behind you.

HOWARD MORGAN

Baseball Manager 2; Basketball Manager 2, 3; Football 2, 3, 4; Monogram Club 2, 3, 4.

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love"—however, the season seems not to be a factor in Howard's case. But aside from the affairs of the heart, he has found time to be manager of the basketball and baseball teams.

MARY ELIZABETH NASH

Murphy High School, Mobile, Alabama 1. Vallejo High School, Vallejo, California 1. Wilson High School, Portsmouth, Va., 2. Science Club 3; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Treasurer 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Little Theatre 4; French Club 4.

Many adjectives are needed to describe Mary Elizabeth. She is very capable and an honor roll student; but we like her most because she is such a fine friend to to everyone, and so very much fun.

MARY ALICE NICHOLS

Girl Reserves 1, Secretary 1; Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Science Club 2; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Music Contest, Greensboro 3, 4; Spanish Club 4; Chapel Choir 4.

Credit where credit is due—Mary Alice has won a place of honor and respect at Broughton because of her high ideals and fine school spirit. "Service" is her motto.

NANCY DAVIDSON NISWONGER

Girl Scouts 1, 2.

A congenial attitude characterizes Nancy. Enthusiastic in whatever she undertakes, always winning friends, she will be sure of a welcome though she wander far and wide.

GERALDINE ELIZABETH PADGETT

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2; Glee Club 2, 3; Chapel Choir 4.

"Sing! Keep your spirits bright! Sing—! It's good for you!" That's why Geraldine's smile is so happy and bright, and why everybody likes her so much. She believes in singing her troubles away.

JUANITA ESTELLE PADGETT

Glee Club 2.

"With a smile and a song"—that's her motto. She's gracious and magnanimous—pleasant and unselfish, and can she sing? Well, just turn on your radio for a program sponsored by some prominent business firm and you will hear the Padgett Sisters.

DAVID CLARENCE PEARCE, JR.

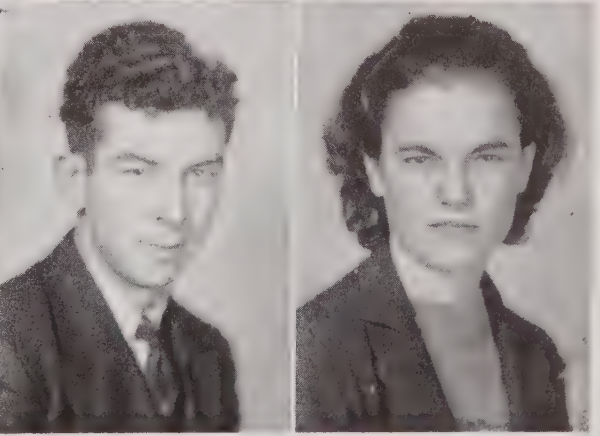

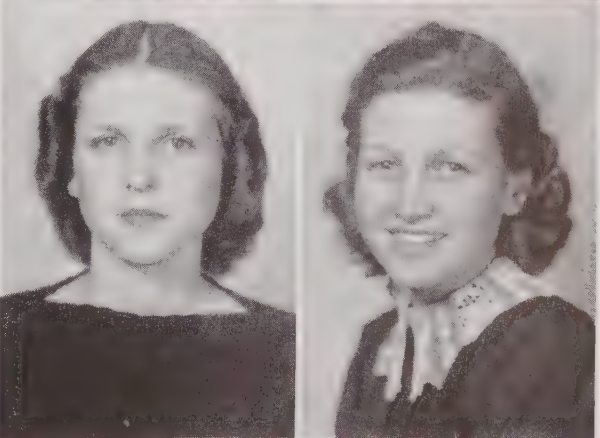

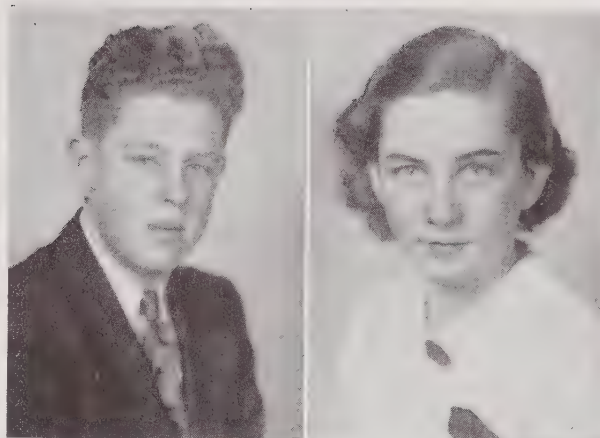

Wakelon High School: Science Club 1, 2; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Physical Culture Club 3. Needham B. Broughton: Football 5; Basketball 5; Monogram Club 5; Baseball 5.

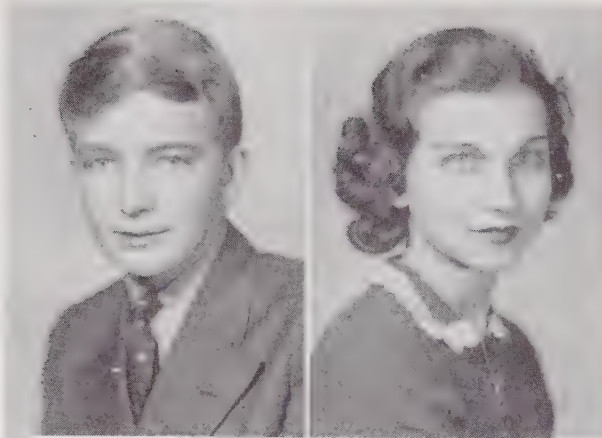

Dick is another of our newcomers this year, but we know he will break through life's obstacles just as he broke through the line on the gridiron. A sure winner anywhere!

DOROTHY RUTH PEARCE

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Girl Scouts 1, 2, 3, 4; Little Theatre 4; French Club 4; LATIPAC Staff 4.

By her earnestness and diligence, Dorothy has attained a high rank as a student; by her sincerity and loyalty, she has won many friends who would say with the poet: "Here's to the girl with a heart and a smile, That makes the bubble of life worth while."

GEORGE DIAL PENICK

Science Club 2, 3; Tennis Club 3, 4; German Club 3, 4; LATIPAC Staff 4; Student Council 4; Tennis Team 4.

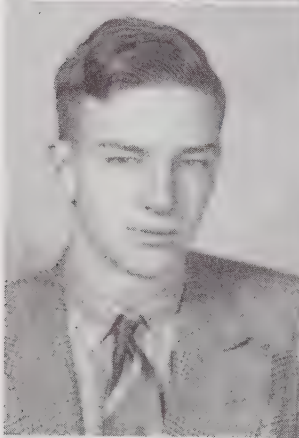

How fine it would be if there were more boys like George! The easy calm way in which he masters any situation makes us all envious. To be his friend is a privilege.

ELOISE HICKS PENNY

Girls' Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Latin Club 3; Little Theatre 4; LATIPAC Staff 4.

She may be a "Penny," but her value to the class of '38 cannot be measured in dollars and cents. Eloise has proved her worth in many phases of school life, and we wish for her the best of everything when she leaves Broughton for broader fields of activity.

AUBREY PERRY

Glee Club 2, 3, 4, 5; Band 2; Tennis 3.

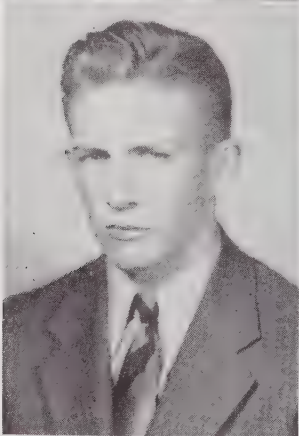

How quiet! How dependable! How coöperative! These are exclamations we often hear in reference to Aubrey. He has the rare gift among Broughton Seniors of weighing his words carefully before he speaks; hence when he talks, we all listen.

CELESTE MACEACHERN PERRY

Girls' Athletic Association 2; French Club 4; Little Theatre 4.

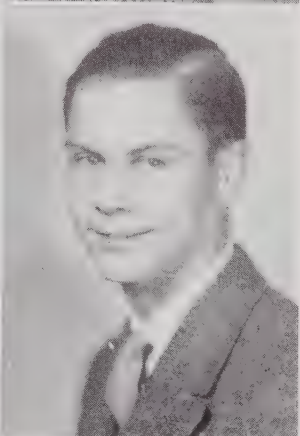

Celeste is an artist of unusual ability, a scholar of enviable rank, and a friend of true worth. A sweeter disposition the gods could not have bestowed on anyone.

CAREY ALVIN PHILLIPS

Cary High School 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Football 1; Athletic Club 1, 2, 3; Science Club 1, 2; Monogram Club 4, 5; Hi-Y 4; Baseball 4; Basketball 5; Football 2, 3, 4, 5.

"Cottontop" received the trophy for the most valuable member of our football team, but we think he should receive one just for the services he has rendered to the school in his one year with us. Here's to "our football hero!"

AUBREY HAROLD PITTMAN

Junior Basketball 2; Student Council 2, 3; Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 3, 4; Tennis Club 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Assistant Cheer leader 3; Spanish Club, Treasurer 4; Manager Football 4; Hi-Y 4; Monogram Club 4.

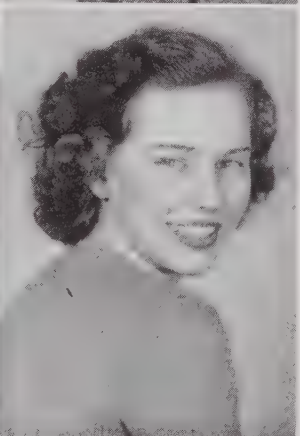

Broughton's "Beau Brummeli" and one of the zippiest dancers that ever sauntered onto a ballroom floor is Aubrey. Aside from his social activities, Aubrey has found time to be manager of the football team and to star as forward on the basketball team.

DOROTHY LOUISE REDMOND

Girls' Athletic Association 2; LATIPAC Staff 4.

Many of us will remember "Dot" for her witty remarks. Others will remember her for her personality. But all of us will remember her for her thoughtfulness of others, and her willingness to lend a helping hand.

JEANNE RYDER RENFROW

SENIOR HISTORY

Histories reveal facts concerning men and nations. Only through a careful review of our achievements, mistakes, joys, and disappointments are we inspired to new endeavors and higher accomplishments. Let me present then, a panorama of the events of the past five years for the benefit of our class and friends.

Briefly, let us turn back to the year nineteen thirty-three, when, as bewildered Sub-freshmen, the class entered Needham Broughton High School. Leigh Wilson, chosen president of this group, piloted us safely from one unfamiliar task to another and we soon acquired that self assuring feeling of being an indispensable part of an organization. The following year most of us returned, no longer lowly rated Sub-Freshmen.

The beginning of the Freshman year found the members of the class being divided into groups according to their respective interests. Ruth Davidson was elected president and served in an efficient way throughout the year.

By the time our Sophomore year rolled around all of us were entering whole heartedly into the activities of the school. We offered enthusiastic support to the exceptionally fine athletic teams, which won state championships in football, boxing, basketball, and baseball.

Our Junior year passed rapidly by, as we advanced in scholastic and athletic achievement. Jimmy Allen was our able and popular president. The highlight of the year was the annual Junior-Senior dance, featuring Bill Darst and his orchestra. The gymnasium was transformed into a Bohemian night club where guests danced gaily and were entertained with an elaborate floor show.

Early in our Senior year we nominated and elected class officers. The presidency was again placed in the capable hands of Leigh Wilson.

In addition to routine tasks many of us participated in extra-curricular activities. We were well represented in varsity sports by such athletes as Philips, Lee, Allen, Wood, Pierce and Alford, who have done much to make our various teams successful.

The Senior play, "New Fires," a lively three-act comedy was presented in February and proved a signal success. A well-chosen cast played to the largest audience ever to witness a Senior Play at Broughton High School. "The Duchess says Her Prayers," won second place in the district dramatic contest.

The outstanding social event of the year was the Junior-Senior dance in April, at which the Seniors were guests of the Juniors. This lovely affair planned and executed under the capable direction of Miss Mary Tucker, their adviser, will be remembered by every Senior present as one of the happiest events of the year.

Dan Hodges and Julia Reams Lee have led the class constantly in scholarship, although closely followed by several others.

Our student government, headed this year by W. T. Martin, has rendered many valuable services to our class and school. The leaders, advisers, and members of this group deserve much credit for their hard work.

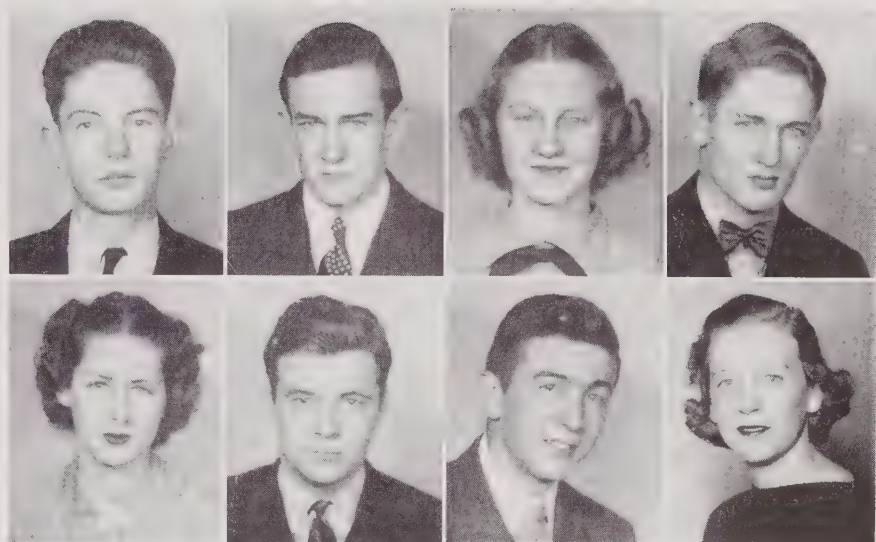

Today, as we leave the school and our fellow students, each of us thinks back (not without regret) over the years just passed. Many of the class entered as "subs" while others have come from far and near to join us from year to year. Many who started with us as Sub-Freshmen have moved away or dropped by the wayside. We have chosen our courses, played, worked, and practiced as a great unit; but now we are on the threshold of individualism. The doors of college and business firms are opening to us, and we are to enter them as men on our merit. And thus, Needham Broughton, the class of nineteen thirty-eight bids you "Farewell."

HISTORY OF THE JUNIOR CLASS

Four years ago the Juniors, eager-faced and willing to participate in all school activities, entered Broughton. Under able leaders the class has developed steadily into a strong and influential group of the school. Interest in elections has been a feature of the Junior Class.

Class loyalty and sincere friendship have developed under the leadership of the officers and advisers. With enthusiasm the first meeting of the Sub-Freshman Class was called to elect the officers. The first president was Bill Upshaw, who was followed by Bill McGruder and Albert Kelly, Freshman presidents; Reynold Tucker, Sophomore president; and David Willis, Junior president.

Members of the class have taken an active part in the work of the Student Council. Besides serving as officers, they have worked on the various committees and as chairmen. Frances Crowder was Secretary of the Student Council last year. This year Reynold Tucker is Vice President of the same organization.

One of the beauty spots at Broughton is the lighted clock in the tower at night. The Junior Class was responsible for having it repaired during their Freshman year. This year the Juniors honored the Seniors at a dance in the gymnasium of the school. Every member of the class coöperated in making this a memorable event for Juniors and Seniors alike; Miss Tucker, our adviser, gave unsparingly of her time and energy in planning this lovely social event.

And now as the year draws to a close, the Juniors look forward to assuming leadership in Broughton in all phases of the school program.

DORIS CLARK.

ACTIVITIES

HOME FROM THE SEA

Lapping waters of the great sea — Peaceful and quiet. The day's work is done; and the boats have come home. Fishing boats and their simple tackle — small but sturdy and strong. Here life goes on, quietly and evenly. Little waves that curl around these fishing boats may have washed bloody sands on other shores. Here
there is peace.

MOTTO: Approve Ye the things that are Excellent

In all activities the Student Council has attempted to encourage the students to live up to the standards established by its motto. It is hoped that the students will apply it to all their undertakings.

The Intramural Sports program which was initiated and sponsored by the Council, has proved to be the most helpful, and most outstanding achievement of the year's work.

The Point System, which has been enforced this year, has been revised to include every activity in the school. A gold medal is to be awarded by the Council each year to the two seniors having the highest number of points.

Through the untiring efforts of the Motion Picture Committee, the Council has been able to pay over five hundred dollars on the projector which was purchased last year.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the Social Committee was the Student Leaders banquet, given at the beginning of the year. The officers of all clubs and organizations in the school were the guests of the Student Council.

APPRECIATION

The toil is over . . . the fun begins. After weeks of long hours and hard work on the part of the staff, the LATIPAC is back from the printers and is ready for your enjoyment.

Besides the regular staff, many others have assisted in the publication of this book. Mrs. W. N. Hicks and Mrs. D. E. Starnes have burned the midnight oil with their proof reading and Miss Mary Nelson very graciously has turned extra typing over to her classes. . . . The art work is especially outstanding. This fact may be explained in that our art staff has had the expert advice, council, and constructive suggestions of Mr. George Fairbanks of the Raleigh Art Center. . . . The annual's theme is one near to the hearts of all Tar Heels. Two seniors J. R. Smith and Alan Jones, and a Junior, Ben Lawrence, under the direction of Mrs. O. K. Joyner, wrote the lines for the theme which is presented in the front of the LATIPAC. . . . Mrs. Joyner's Senior English classes have also made valuable literary contributions. If you have read the interesting facts about North Carolina which are presented in this book, you will realize that it required time and effort to accumulate them. The credit for this study goes to Mrs. N. G. Fonville's Civics group which was headed by Hugh Wilson, Eugene Richardson, and John Spinks. . . . Then, there's Mr. W. H. Shaw. He was a sort of "Jack-of-all-trades" for the yearbook. He assisted in ways, too numerous to mention. . . . The staff is forever singing the praises of Mrs. Ben Lawrence, for Mrs. Lawrence was "Johnny-on-the-spot" when a car was needed for transportation to some "Picture Taking" spot. . . . And this leads to our photographers. The Photography club, under the direction of Miss Doris Lassiter, Adviser, and John Arey, President, and H. K. Weather-spoon, contributed excellent shots for the Life Section. H. K. did the unusual Life cover. . . . And, then, to the club pictures. Mrs. H. A. Siddell combined patience, skill, and a mastery of photography for the unusual groupings. She outdid herself with the lovely picture of the Girls' Glee Club. . . . Mrs. Bayard Wootten, outstanding North Carolina photographer, used her inimitable style in making the excellent superlative pictures. And the beautiful North Carolina scenes are among her best known. . . . After all the material was compiled, Mr. J. H. Hardison, of Edwards & Broughton, gave many extra hours to the school, going over every detail with Miss Kirkpatrick and the editor, and furnishing the services of an expert, with a ruler, pencil and calendar.

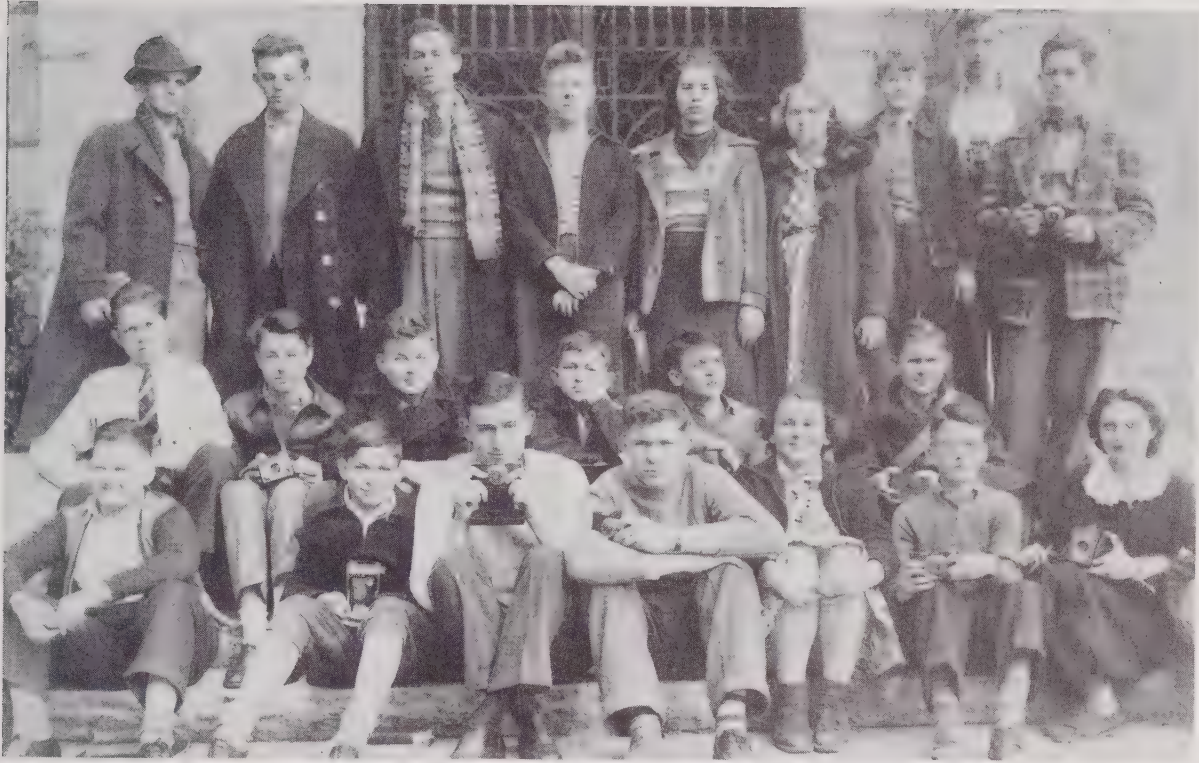

And now, it is finished. Miss Kirkpatrick's office is once more in order and all the notes, papers and folders have been discarded. The LATIPAC is placed in your hands for your inspection and your approval. We hope you like it!

The Camera Club was organized December 6, 1937. The officers are: President, John Arey; Vice President, James Edwards; Secretary-Treasurer, Ann Hodges. The purpose of the club is to learn to take, develop and print better pictures. The club has been fortunate in getting professional photographers to speak and give demonstrations at the club meetings. Through the sponsorship of the Federal Art Center and the coöperation of Mr. Shaw the club has set up a dark room which enables the members to learn developing and printing. The students have found the club an interesting and educational hobby.

Summer Session By Executive

In the course of the summer the student council has its three executive committees. Most of the committees have also met separately prior to the opening of school. Plans for the coming year were made at these meetings. The committees were informed as to their duties and were instructed to draw up their separate projects for the year.

The Grounds Committee plans for a new playground for the school, to be used by the boys and girls.

The Social Committee will range in plans for the new school year. They are planning a social dance for the year. The year's socials will give several other socials throughout the year.

JOURNALISM CLASS

William Craven, Raleigh Eagle, spoke before two of the speech classes this week on his recent trip to the International Scout Jamboree at Vogelsang, Holland.

Craven left Raleigh on June 27, in a special Jamboree train of 16 cars filled with scouts and headed for the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Washington. This Jamboree was held on the banks of the Potomac River and lasted for ten days. After leaving Washington, at the end of the Washington

The Little Theater is an organization composed of students interested in dramatics. The club has general officers, and also committees which are appointed as needed. The members learn as much as possible about costuming, make-up, current plays, stage setting, lighting effects, and, in general, anything connected with the art of the theatre. The Little Theater is open to juniors and seniors and is under the direction of a faculty adviser.

FORENSICS

Each year more and more interest is being aroused in the debating department. Under the capable advisership of Miss Helen Runnion, this activity is growing into one of the most important factors of the school.

The Broughton team competing in the 1938 triangular debates was outstanding in that it was composed of one senior, two juniors, and one sophomore. J. D. Dorsett, '40, and Grover Poole, '39, upheld the affirmative against Jerry Stockard, '39, and Dan Hodges, '38, of the negative. Alternates were Billy Windes, '38, and Mac White, '39.

MISS HELEN RUNNION

Forensics Instructor

The query: "Resolved that the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation," was debated throughout the state of North Carolina by high school enthusiasts. Broughton's teams debated against Fayetteville at Durham, and against Durham at Fayetteville, while the school at Raleigh was host to Durham and Fayetteville.

CHAPEL CHOIR

The chapel choir is composed of sixty-five girls and boys under the capable direction of Miss Mabel Kenyon. The choir was started only this year, but the students who compose this group have worked hard to give excellent programs. The making of vestments was supervised by Mrs. A. C. Eatman, and this vested choir has been a lovely addition to many programs both at Broughton and at several churches in the city.

MISS STROTHER

Adviser

The Latin Club, under the able leadership of Carolyn Kenyon, Betty Stonebanks, Mary Ann Dixon, Hilah White, and Miss Melissa Strother has been very active during the school year 1937-38. The heavy enrollment has been due in a large measure to the efforts of Anne Lineberger, the chairman of the program committee, and her staff. There have been pageants, illustrated lectures, and programs applicable to the season, such as Christmas and Valentine programs.

The aim of the group is to make each succeeding club, a better one than it was the year before. To make this come true this year's club is purchasing some materials for programs and donating them to the Club of 1938-39.

The Hi-Y is a club organized by the Y.M.C.A. and the high school. It is composed of high school boys and meets every Wednesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Only seniors and half-year juniors are invited into the membership of the club. The purpose of the Hi-Y is to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian living."

Members: Jimmy Allen, Bill Beckwith, Bos Beckwith, Melville Broughton, Lewis Connor, Jimmy De Vogt, Bob Finch, Phifer Fullenwider, Marion Fuller, Jimmy Gerow, Charles Goodno, North Hinkle, Dan Hodges, Julian Horton, Erwin Johnson, Billy Lambe, Bill Lovell, W. This is one of the most active clubs in the school. Its members as a whole are from the science classes, although this is not compulsory. The Science Club meets every other Monday night. The programs consist of very interesting talks, usually by some eminent scientist who is outstanding in his field of research.

This club put on no membership drive, and yet there are about seventy-five students who are attracted to a club whose purpose is to develop scientific interest in the school.

ATHLETICS

Needham Broughton's athletic program is broad in scope to provide healthful recreation for every student. Keen interest and rivalry have been stimulated in intramural sports for both girls and boys.

Varsity teams in the following sports have represented Raleigh in Conference competition: football, basketball, baseball, boxing, golf, and tennis for boys; soft ball and basketball for girls. Junior football and basketball teams for boys also met rivals with marked success. Although Raleigh teams have brought home only one state championship, boxing, they have splendid records of victories and fine sportsmanship.

REVIEWING THE SEASON

After a month of hard practice the Raleigh Purple and Golds' opened the 1937 gridiron season with a victory of 27 to 6 over Apex on September 17. Over 1,200 persons were estimated to have attended the first game, which was held on Broughton field.

MARTIN WEEKS
Captain Raleigh High Team

The Capitals opened the season with three new outstanding players, Alvin Phillips, Dick Pierce and John Lee, all of whom were lettermen.

Jimmy Allen proved to be the star of the first game, taking two enemy passes for touchdowns. Jim Mills, left end for Apex, scored their only touchdown, failing to get the extra point.

Raleigh's first out-of-town game followed on the next Friday when the Caps met Greensboro, which proved a loss to the Hurricanes with a score of 6 to 0. The touchdown that scored was a pass from Weeks, intended for Smith, but intercepted by Whiteheart of Greensboro.

The following game, when Raleigh met Wilson, the Coon High School boys outweighed and outplayed the Raleigh boys to a 12 to 7 victory. This was the first Raleigh victory for the Wilson boys in quite a number of years.

Jimmy Smith's placement after a touchdown was the narrow margin by which the Capitals took Fayetteville to a score of 7 to 6. Halbert Edge and Tom Gould with Jimmy Smith were the stars.

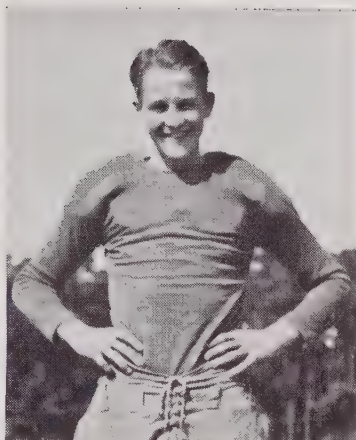

Before an audience of 2,500 Raleigh took the Charleston eleven for a victory of 13 to 0. Although Charleston led in first downs, the Hurricane team outplayed them throughout the entire game, of which Alvin Phillips starred.

Journeying to Wilmington, Raleigh was favored to win by a large margin in this conference game, but the boys of the coast played a surprising game. A pass from Weeks to Edge brought the only score to Raleigh's victory, 7 to 0. Smith, star halfback, scored the extra point.

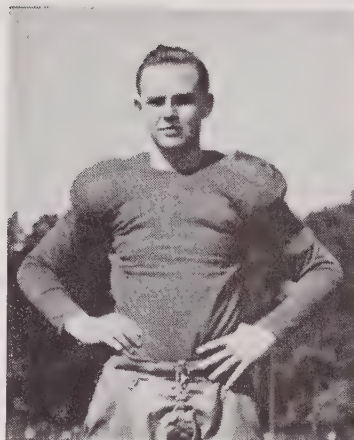

One of Raleigh's most exciting games was the victory that they took over Steubenville, Ohio, with a score of 7 to 6. In the first half of the game Steubenville made their only touchdown, failing to get their extra point. At the end of the fourth quarter the Caps came back with a touchdown, and the placement by Smith took the victory for the Caps. One of the largest crowds ever to attend a Raleigh football game witnessed the Raleigh-Steubenville game that night at State College Riddick Stadium.

By managing to push over two touchdowns, Columbia took the Raleigh Caps to a score of 14 to 0. The Hurricanes held them off to the third quarter, when they crossed the locals goal line twice.

Then came the time for the locals to meet Durham, when the score ended with Raleigh 6, Durham 0. A pass from Weeks to Buck Senter put Raleigh in position in the third quarter. The winning of this game put Raleigh up against Rocky Mount for the Eastern Conference title.

It was a rainy afternoon in Rocky Mount that the Raleigh boys journeyed down to meet a team which overweighed the Capital eleven. Raleigh was stated to have played a marvelous game but came out on bottom with a 6 to 0 score. Alvin Phillips was the star of the game, which caused injuries for two members of the Raleigh eleven, Paul "Babe" Wood and Craven Turner.

After winding up the football season the most valuable player was selected by the squad to be awarded the annual cup presented by the State Theater. The cup was presented to Alvin Phillips.

So, the 1937 gridiron season for Raleigh High School passes in review.

BOXING SEASON CLOSES WITH SIXTH STATE VICTORY

Raleigh 5, Wilmington 3.

Raleigh High School opened its 1938 boxing season with a win over the Wilmington pugs by five to three points. A crowd of over 2,000 persons saw the Caps take the first victory of the season when the Wilmington boys led at the first with 3 to 1 points.

The two outstanding fights of the match were in the 125-lb. class with L. M. Dodd fighting against Delma Williamson of Wilmington. Dodd received a technical after 1:45 seconds of the second round.

Jimmy Holderfield, local 145 pounder took a TKO over Bobby Warters in the second round.

Raleigh 5, North Charleston 3.

The Raleigh boys journeyed to North Charleston to take the second game of the season by leading 5 to 3 points.

Again, Dodd and Holderfield were outstanding fighters of the evening, each obtaining a TKO.

Raleigh 8, Burlington 0.

Of the nine bouts with the Burlington pugs, the Raleigh boys took the hand throughout the night. The Capitals came out with an 8 to 0 score, a third victory for Gerow's boys.

Raleigh 5, Durham 4.

Over a thousand fans saw the Raleigh boys take the Durham Bearcats to a score 5 to 4 points, at the Raleigh Armory. Of the nine bouts, two were taken as TKO's. The first was taken by L. M. Dodd when he floored Rose, of Wilmington, in the third round. Thus, the Raleigh boys became entries in the State Boxing Tilt in Chapel Hill.

Capt's Take Sixth Victory.

The Raleigh pugs took the fifth straight victory and the sixth victory in the past eight years in the Tin Can in Chapel Hill, in the State Tourney. The Raleigh Co-captains, L. M. Dodd and Jimmy Holderfield, both took individual titles.

Charlotte was leading the first day by one-half point, but the Capitals had three boys in the finals to the two "Queen City" boys. Wilmington finished one-half point behind Raleigh. However, with such close competition, the Raleigh boys came out on top under the excellent guidance of Coach Jimmy Gerow.

BASEBALL

Raleigh opened its 1938 baseball season with the looks of a State Championship team. Those who reported to Coach S. O. Brandon and Assistant Coach Willy Duke, as the most promising players were:

FEATURES

WHITE STARS OF ENCHANTMENT

Primeval beauty and freshness of an ever returning spring.
White stars of enchantment deep in the green of the wood.
North Carolina's own — loveliness unadorned and unchanged by man. Easy it is to believe that fairies, enchanted by the misty blooms, inhabit the greenwood. Groves of white blooms—few spots so beautiful along the paths of the world.

A Senior Group

Posed by Miss Louise Scott, Mr. Louis Connor, Jr., Miss Lura Self, Mr. William Lambe, Miss Mary Ann Canady, Mr. William Derby, Miss Jane Forbes, Mr. William Lovell, and Miss Mary Sue Berry on the lawn of the beautiful Cameron home in Raleigh. This mansion, built more than a hundred years ago, is typically anti-bellum.

Mr. and Miss Needham Broughton

Posed by Miss Ruth Davidson and Mr. W. T. Martin, Jr., on the lawn of the Raney home with the State Capitol in the background. One of the architecturally perfect buildings in America, the capitol was designed by Ithiel Towne and was completed in 1840 of native North Carolina stone.

Beau/Belle

Posed by Miss Jennille Harris and Mr. Richard Spencer in the garden of J. R. Weatherspoon in Raleigh. This lovely spot is a typical North Carolina garden, its climbing wisteria, proud dogwood, stately pines, and burning azalias, creating an aristocratic Southern air.

Scholarship

Posed by Miss Julia Reams Lee and Mr. Dan Hodges at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. This college was the first state university in America to open its doors to the general public. It was under this tree and by this well that the first plans for the organization of the college were formed.

Versatility

Posed by Miss Page Eatman and Mr. Leigh Wilson at Duke University in Durham. The chapel is one of the best of English examples of Gothic architecture, the lines being faintly reminiscent of the famous Canterbury Cathedral in England. The stone for the chapel was quarried near Hillsboro from the Duke University quarries.

Sports

Posed by Miss Kathern Turner and Mr. James Allen in a grove of pines. These tall trees with their regal bearing cover most of the state, and it is with no little pride that every Tar Heel calls his home "The Land of the Long Leaf Pine."

Wit

Posed by Miss Nancy Barwick and Mr. North Hinkle at the Governor's Mansion in Raleigh. The mansion, designed by Samuel Sloane, was started in 1883 and was completed six years later. The historic home is built of bricks that were made by hand by State prisoners.

A SOUTHERN HIGH SCHOOL: N.B.H.S. OF RALEIGH, N. C.

The Needham B. Broughton High School of Raleigh, N. C., one of the city's two secondary schools, has a student body of 1,130. Built of native stone and surrounded by ten acres, it is conceded to be one of the most beautiful school buildings in North Carolina. Needham Broughton has adequate science laboratories, gymnasium, cafeteria, little theater, art gallery, motion picture equipment, room telephone system, amplifier for auditorium, printing shop, photo developing room, acoustically treated commercial department and music room, spacious playgrounds, and athletic fields.

A majority of the students hold membership in one or more of the eighteen chartered clubs. Classes and clubs stage dances, banquets, teas, and picnics at intervals.

The curriculum includes basic academic courses, vocational training, and creative arts. Sixty-six per cent of the 188 members of this year's graduating class plan to attend college; 13 per cent, business school; 3 per cent, to enter nurses' training; 8 per cent, to seek immediate employment; 10 per cent are uncertain as to future plans.

LIFE ON THE BROUGHTON NEWS- FRONT: THE DAY IN FULL SWING

The library offers inspiration and interest to many Broughton students with its 3,000 books, 20 monthly magazines, and 2 daily papers. A new feature which has been added this year is the magazine room. Miss Tucker, the librarian, has twelve student assistants who help with the routine work.

The greenhouse is part of the biology set up of the school. The students, under the direction of Miss Ellington, have the opportunity here to see in actual operation many of the principles learned in their biology classes. This course is a very popular one with the students and few Broughton pupils are willing to omit biology from their schedules.

The cafeteria is a busy place during the two lunch periods. Mrs. Stevens directs the preparation and the serving of the food, and about 600 pupils eat here daily. The cafeteria serves not only as a place to eat but also as a place for social contacts.

The cooks at Broughton work efficiently and busily to serve hot lunches to the hungry students. Sally's pies are famous, but all the cooks at Broughton are good cooks. The menus are prepared under the supervision of Miss Frances Moore, who arranges a variety of well balanced meals.

The Raleigh Federal Art Center was established in the schools, February 1, 1937. It consists of a gallery and five teaching units which offer courses in design, block printing, drawing, painting, lettering, layout, and weaving. The students working under the direction of the Art Center received many of the awards offered to high school students in the contest sponsored by the University of North Carolina.

In the health room at Broughton Jean Kieger stands on the scales while Dixie French checks her weight. Student assistants take charge of the health room at regular periods, and capably care for minor accidents.

In the group were Louis Connor, managing editor of the Hi-Times, Virginia Hassinger, Rosemary Underwood, Margaret Cromartie, and Miss Jane Beatty adviser.

The class also entered copies of the paper in the contest sponsored by the convention. Copies of the Hi-Times were displayed in John Jay Hall along with papers of high schools from 24 states.

The Broughton Press Club, composed of members of the journalism class, combined with the Daily Tar Heel of the University of North Carolina sponsored the second annual North Carolina High School Newspaper Institute April 29 and 30. The Institute drew a large number of students and proved a success.

In the 1938 art contest sponsored by the University of North Carolina art department, Frances received first honors in the water color division. She also took first and second place in water color in the contest sponsored by the Federated Woman's Clubs of North Carolina. Dan took first honors in pictorial painting in the State Woman's Club contest. To this award he added the three honors which he received in the local Woman's Club contest. Dan also took second place for water color and honorable mention for stage design and commercial poster in the University contest.

The pencil drawings in this edition of the LATIPAC are splendid examples of Frances' easy, sweeping technique, and the lovely printing which appears in the introductory pages of the LATIPAC is an illustration of Dan's clear pencil style.

Frances Templeton and Dan Hodges have unusual talent for artists so young.

Graceful Frances Craven, popular senior dancer.

LIFE ON THE BROUGHTON NEWSFRONT: GUIDING INTO VOCATIONAL LIFE

Sewing Classes Attract Many Girls.

All seventh grade girls are required to take Home Economics but it remains such a popular subject that the enrollment for 1937-1938 reached a peak of 230. Besides the splendid training in Child Care, Interior Decorating, Foods, and Home Making which the girls receive, the department has the facilities for preparing for the various teas, luncheons, and parties that are given throughout the school year. The girls also present style shows in which they model the clothes which they make. Miss Molly Mitchell and Miss Dorothy Phillips are the directors and teachers in this department.

265 Students Seek Business Training.

The Commercial Department is one of the most up-to-date in North Carolina. Due to the great demand for typing, only juniors and seniors are privileged to receive instruction. Miss Mary Nelson has a busy schedule teaching two classes of shorthand in addition to all of the typing. The department has an acoustically treated typing room with fifty typewriters, a bookkeeping room, an office practice room with a mimeograph machine, adding machine, and other office equipment. Two years of typewriting and one year of shorthand is offered to the commercial students.

Boys Learn Use of Tools. All seventh grade boys receive instruction in mechanical arts. Many older boys elect advance woodwork and mechanical drawing. Resourceful Mr. W. T. Freeman supervises work in both. Since a large percentage of the N.B.-H.S. boys continue their higher education at N. C. State College and pursue engineering courses, these departments are especially popular.

Commercial Art Student Renders Valuable Service. Robert Demain snapped by LATIPAC photographer, lettering the entrances to offices, gymnasium, auditorium and special rooms. This field of vocational training is taught by Mr. George Fairbanks of the Raleigh Art Center.

PLAYS OF THE YEAR:

The Duchess Says Her Prayers

For the past several years, Broughton has been an interested participant in the State Dramatic Contest. Alternating, comedy and tragedy or serious drama are the two types presented.

The new director, Mrs. Christine Joyner, chose for presentation this year, a one-act tragedy, "The Duchess Says Her Prayers," by Miss Cass Canfield. This is a story of conflict of emotions in the lives of three people. Cecilia Gallerani, a lady of the fifteenth century Milanese Court, is deeply in love with Lodovico Sforza, the famous Duke of Bari. He also loves Cecilia and the two are blissfully happy, unaware that Beatrice d'Este, the Duchess of Bari, knows of the affair. The Duke, having followed Cecilia to the chapel of a cathedral, is again telling her of his great love for her, when the Duchess arrives for vespers. Not daring to be seen together, Lodovico goes into the main cathedral and Cecilia stands motionless in an empty niche. The Duchess, upon entering, thinks that Cecilia is a waxen Madonna and makes a heart-breaking prayer for the love of her husband. Cecilia is deeply touched by this poignant prayer, and with her own heart breaking and against Lodovico's will, her stronger character comes to light and she gives up the only one she has ever loved to the woman to whom he rightfully belongs.

Kathryn Norman, as the young Duchess, played upon the heart strings of all who saw the play; Bill Smith and Page Eatman, as the Duke and Madonna Cecilia, interpreted their parts with ease and ability.

"Pray for Me to God that he may change the heart of my husband," pleads lovely Katherine Norman in a stirring prayer, one of the most dramatic moments in "The Duchess Says Her Prayers."

An Unrehearsed Scene of the "New Fires" cast—senior play for '38. Dorothy Bunn, make-up artist, supervises the application of grease paint to three definite character types. First, there is the young girl of twenty or so, then the matron of forty-five, and at the right is the old character type: elderly, old fashioned, and funny. Fifteen seniors were well cast and played their parts in a splendid way.

"Listen, Blessed Virgin, have mercy!" And Page Eatman, as Cecilia, mistaken by the Duchess as a waxen Madona, held this difficult pose for fifteen minutes, never moving or changing her expression.

"I Can't Lose You. That is incredible," cries heart-broken Lodovico (Bill Smith) in a desperate but vain appeal to Cecilia.

Frances Templeton with her mastery of water colors gave an air of reverence and solemnity to an authentic fifteenth century chapel window design.

STAGE CREW PLAYS IMPORTANT ROLE

LIGHTS! SPOT! CURTAIN! ACTION! Alan MacIntyre is ready to let the curtain go as John Young, with the stage directions, stands with his hand on the main switch ready to black out all the lights. Rupert Riley has control of the footlights, the borders, and the dimmers, and Bill Derby is ready to place the spotlight on the star of the performance.

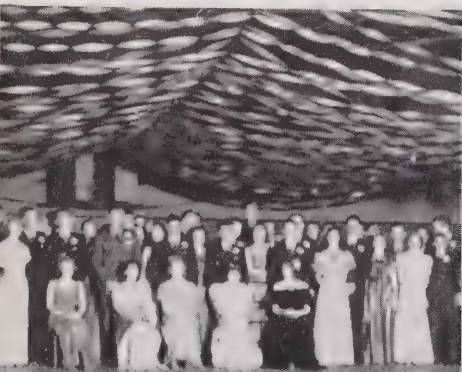

Life Goes to Parties

Hi-Y Entertains. With the coming of spring, dance tunes were in the air, Little Applers were warming up—and the Hi-Y gave a dance. It was given in the Broughton Gymnasium which was gaily decorated for the occasion. Below: Paul Moore, capably directing his Swing Masters, made the “music go ‘round and ‘round;” at Paul’s right is a bird’s-eye view of all the guests—at his left is the Hi-Y President, Billy Lambe, with Miss Jane Forbes. The dancing must have been too strenuous, for perched along the wall and taking no part in the festivities are seven dignified Broughton seniors. Down in the corner are two popular chaperones who seem to enjoy watching the fun. They are Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hicks, who enter into the spirit of any party.

The Younger Set Entertains

The Sub-Freshmen Party was held in the gymnasium at Broughton. There are 216 sub-freshmen and each one contributed something to make the class party a success. This "younger set" showed remarkable dependability and talent in planning the entertainment, making booths, and decorating the gymnasium. Dancing was the special feature of the evening; and the boys and girls thoroughly enjoyed the Big Apple, the Little Apple, and other dances. Boys danced with girls, boys danced with boys, and boys danced alone. With the money made from the party the sub-freshmen are planning a gift to the school. The interest in this gift has created in the sub-freshman class a true school spirit—a genuine interest in Broughton.

Five Sub-Freshmen—Nancy Upshaw, Gill Allen, Elizabeth Andrews, Alf Burden, Wilmer Betts are dividing refreshments. Two popsicles won't go very far.

And off in the corner they do the Little Apple—Alf Burden and Wilmer Betts are the boys.

Private Lives

Billy Shaw—Elected 1940 Mascot when only one day old.

Bobby Pearce, Pem Hobbs, and Hugh Wilson—in a landslide of laughs.

Ben Lawrence—With that 3:15 expression.

Miss Tucker—Not vacationing at Miami but getting her suntan on the Broughton steps.

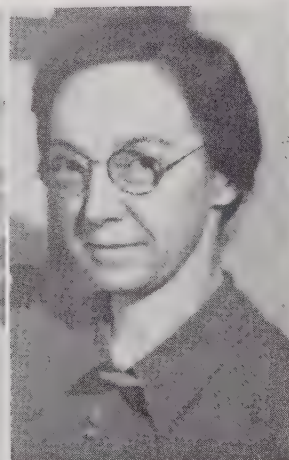

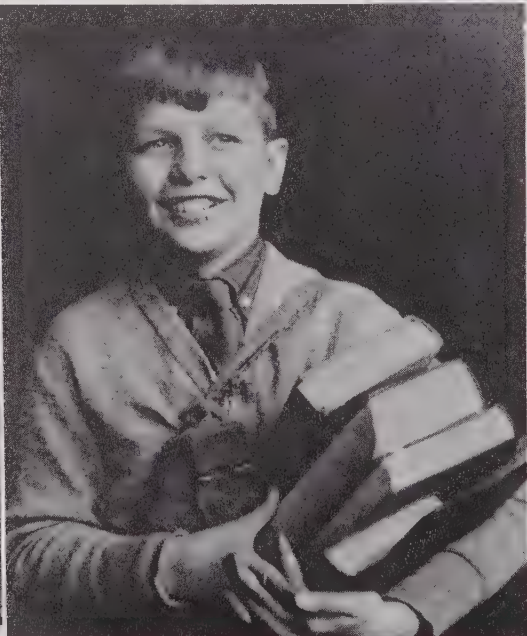

Mrs. Glenn—Beloved English teacher, Broughton's banker, and school store director.

John Arey—"Shoots" his classmates with a camera.

H. K. Witherspoon—Freshman, but a senior in photography. (See Life Cover.)

W. T. Martin and Marion Fuller—Discuss weighty problems.

Miss Sinclair—Camera shy, but caught.

MONARCHS OF NATURE

Lifting one's eyes toward the heavens, luring one's heart toward glory — the mountains of our state stand supreme in their grandeur. Undisturbed are they by man and his petty tricks. Monarchs of nature — lending to little humans inspiration for nobler acts. The mountains of North Carolina — more wonderful than the people, more wonderful than their leaders — eternal grandeur!

Miss Nelson: Louis, you should have been here at 8:45.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

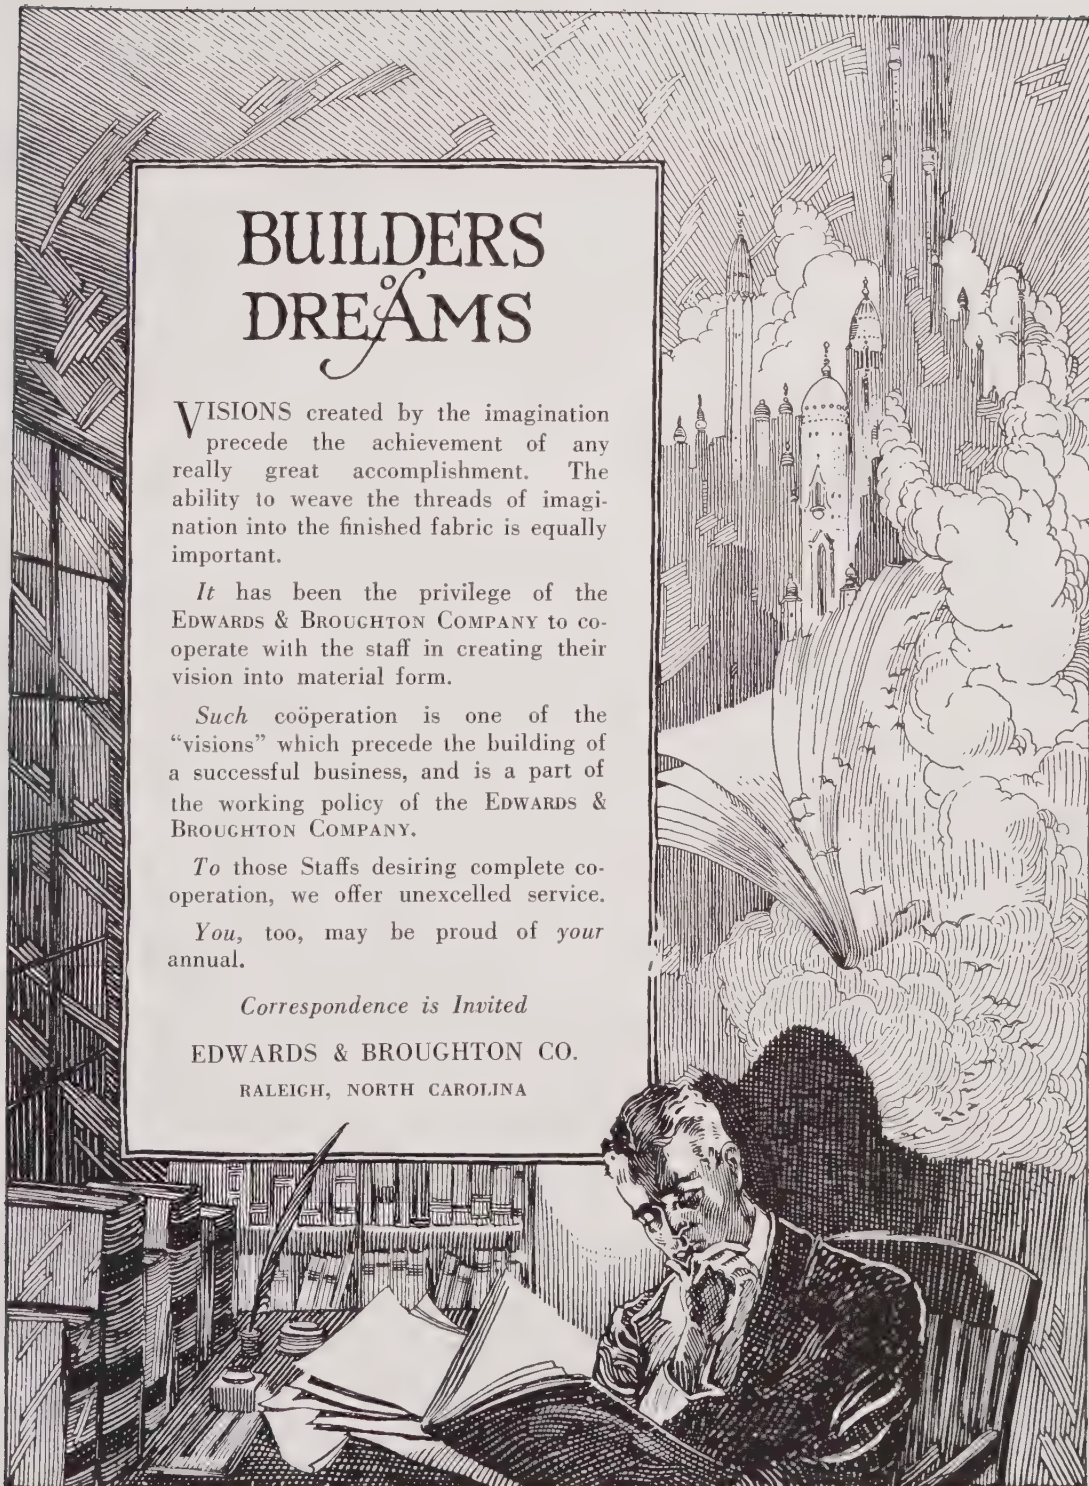

To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
